

HANNAH ARRIETA

SENIOR MANAGER, STRATEGIC SOURCING, UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Bachelor of Science 2014, Accounting

Hannah Arrieta is Senior Manager of Strategic Sourcing at Union Pacific Railroad Company. Union Pacific is one of America's leading transportation companies. Its principal operating company, Union Pacific Railroad, is North America's premier railroad franchise, with 32,200 route miles, covering 23 states across the western two-thirds of the United States (including 874 miles in Wyoming).

Ms. Arrieta has held multiple positions across different departments during her almost 8-year career. She started in Corporate Audit as an Associate and was promoted to a Supervisory position within three years. There she was recognized as the Leader of the Year. After working in Audit, she transitioned to a role in Capital Planning & Analysis conducting financial analysis for different sectors of the business. In April of 2019 she transitioned to a role in the Supply Chain department where she has managed various portfolios. She currently manages $200+ million in spend for locomotive electrical system components and MRO (Maintenance, Repair, and Operations) Materials.

Ms. Arrieta graduated from the University of Wyoming Cum Laude with a BS in Accounting in 2014. She has furthered her professional education and obtained her OSHA and Cal/OSHA General Industry Safety and Health Certification in the fall of 2021. She is currently pursuing her UP Way Certification and serves as a core team member of the "Mom's Who LEAD" Committee of Union Pacific's Women's Initiative Employee Resource Group (LEAD).

A Colorado native, Ms. Arrieta was born and raised in the Fort Collins area. She now lives in Logan, Iowa with her husband, a music teacher and her daughter who is almost 4 years old. In December of 2021, Ms. Arrieta was selected to participate in Union Pacific's 2-year Sponsorship Program called UpLift, a program to mobilize careers of highly performing people of color and female employment at Union Pacific Railroad.
