

Accounting Office Moving to Hill Hall

The University of Wyoming's Accounting Office (this includes Accounting, Asset Management, Check Disbursement, and Tax) will move from Old Main to the 5th floor of Hill Hall the week of March 27th.

We appreciate your patience as the Accounting staff transitions to the new space. Checks will continue to be printed and ACH will continue to be sent during this time frame.

During this time, any communications should be sent to the appropriate email below:
