

Form 1095-C to be Mailed by March 2, 2020

What is Form 1095-C?

IRS Form-C, "Employer-Provided Health Insurance Offer and Coverage," is an Internal Revenue Service tax form provided by your employer, reporting information about an employee's health coverage offered by an Applicable Large Employer.

IRS Guideline:

The deadline for employers to provide Form 1095-C is March 2, 2020. It is not necessary to wait for Form 1095-C in order to file your income tax return.

Some taxpayers may not receive a Form 1095-C by the time they are ready to file their tax return. While the information on these forms may assist in preparing a return, they are not required. Individual taxpayers should not wait for these forms and file their returns as they normally would.

Like last year, taxpayers can prepare and file their returns using other information about their health insurance. You should not attach any of these forms to your tax return.
