The Kanbe Memorial student poster session was established in 2022 to honor the memory of our beloved office associate, Keith Kanbe, who passed in October 2021. Keith held a deep commitment to helping students succeed in our program and this annual poster symposium highlights the amazing research completed by our undergraduate and graduate students this year in Anthropology!

Keith Kanbe Memorial Student Poster Symposium, 2022

Posters as an Assessment Measure?

- Extensive research
- Synthesize information
- Effective visual storytelling and graphic design
- Careful proofreading
- Public speaking
- Lateral learning (student-student)
- Practical skill in profession

Added benefits:

- Opportunity to showcase the work of our students
- Community building

Takeaways.....

1. Curriculum map gave us a visual representation of our requirements
2. Awareness of what was happening in our courses allowed us to create the new SLO
3. Curriculum mapping much more effective tool for us to use in assessment.
