

MORAL COURAGE TREASURE HUNT

Give each participant a copy of this sheet. Have them walk about the room and have people who fit the description in a square initial the square. Call time and recognize person or persons who collected the most initials. Hold group discussion about how easy/difficult it was to get signatures for different squares and why.

Returned money when you were given too much change.	Never gets into fights	Always obeys the law	Does not cheat on tests or papers	Never lies to a parent or teacher
Never uses profanity	Stopped others from calling a person bad names	Showed respect for others even when they did not deserve it	Kept a promise to a friend despite having a better opportunity	Shows respect for adults
Does her or his very best in class	Would admit a mistake even if it would get you in trouble	Does not drink alcohol, smoke cigarettes or use other drugs	Would tell others in the lunch room to stay in control if needed	Cleans up after self and others even when the mess was left by others
Keeps all his or her promises	Is loyal to friends	Always gives personal best	Gives time to help others who need it	Accepts responsibility for all her or his actions
Friends can always count on me to tell the truth	Never misbehaves on a bus	Would return a lost wallet with all the money	Would try to stop a fight in which someone was getting hurt	Does not put down anyone because of race or sex