

that's what we're made of

Respect

You can easily judge the character of a man by how he treats those who can do nothing for him.

— Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, German poet, novelist, playwright, scientist and philosopher (1749-1832)

Respect -means -admiration, deference, esteem, reverence, high opinion. In 4-H, it includes treating the traditions of the program, other members, volunteers, parents and judges like you would like to be treated. Don't engage in disrespectful conduct including verbal abuse of other competitors and judges. Win with grace and lose with dignity!

As Respectful Exhibitors we:

- Accept and tolerate exhibitors with projects different than ours
- Value and honor the decisions of judges and show officials
- Regard the property of other exhibitors, facilities and equipment
- Take pride in our projects and keep our areas clean
- Are courteous and polite to fellow exhibitors, volunteers, and the community

4-H Activity

Simon Says, "Who Are You?"

- Explain to members that they will play a version of Simon Says in which only some members will respond to each command. Tell them that they must watch carefully as they play the game because at the end, each member must tell one new thing they learned about a classmate.
- Have junior leaders start a game of Simon Says providing such directions as
- Simon says "Everyone with brown eyes, stand up."
- Simon says "Everyone who has a dog as a pet, put your right hand on your head."
- Simon says "Everyone who speaks more than one language, jump up and down."

At the end of the game, have all members sit in a circle. Ask each member to name one way in which he or she and another member are alike. The trait they share must be something they didn't know before playing the game. Members might say, for example, "I didn't know that Katie spoke Spanish" or "I didn't know that Jose was left-handed."
