Trustworthiness

Being trusted is among the highest achievements of individuals and corporations.

What does it mean to be Trustworthy?

People will trust a person who has a reputation of being honest, reliable and responsible.

Dishonesty can easily tarnish that reputation, such that others consider you untrustworthy. Being considered trustworthy provides benefits from the way people deal with you, as well as your own self-esteem.

Trust in another people has several meanings:

1. Trust means that you feel that the person is honest and will not lie, cheat or steal from you.
2. It also means that you can count on the person to do as he or she promised and that the person is reliable.

Finally, trust in a person means that you feel he or she can be counted on to do something important, will not shirk from duties, and will take personal pride in what he or she does.

You're trustworthy when:

- ◆ You tell the truth
- ◆ You are sincere. Say what you mean and mean what you say
- ◆ You keep your word
- ◆ You are reliable
- ◆ You return things you borrow
- ◆ You don't gossip

"It's better to be hated for what you are than to be loved for something you are not"

~ Andrew Gide ~

Trustworthiness:

involves four major qualities:

1. Integrity: the idea of a moral wholeness, or oneness, demonstrated by a consistency of thoughts, words, deeds, and duties.
2. Honesty: means that a person doesn't do things that are morally wrong. If something you do is breaking the law or you have to hide it because you'll get in trouble, you are probably not being honest.
3. Promise-keeping: A man is only as good as his word
4. Loyalty: standing with and behind someone in need. Loyal friends share both triumphs and trauma, and offer honest, constructive feedback delivered in a kind and tactful manner.

4-H Club Activity

The "Gossip" Game

Have the group sit in a circle. Whisper a statement in one person's ear. You cannot repeat it even if they didn't understand it the first time. That person repeats the statement in the next person's ear, and so forth around the room. The last person tells what they heard out loud.

Discuss what happened. Did the statement end up the same as it began? Was it close? Why or why not? How does this relate to "real life"? Why can gossip become so harmful?
