Helpful Information for Contest Preparation

All activities will take place at Eastern Wyoming College Douglas Campus. Each contestant is responsible for his/her own transportation as well as credentials to get on and off the State Fairgrounds.

Model Judging

- If your garment is also being judged in Ft. Caspar, you can pick it up for model judging beginning Wednesday afternoon.
 - NOTE: Contestants are responsible for picking up and returning their own garments for model judging on Thursday and Friday. Please stop by the office in Ft. Caspar to let them know when you are taking and/or returning a garment.
- Contestants will have the opportunity to model for a panel of judges which will be followed by a short interview.

Public Fashion Revue

- Due to a small space (the high school is under construction) we will have two public shows, one ready to wear and one constructed.
- Practice for ready to wear will begin at 2:30 pm and practice for constructed will begin at will begin at 3:30 p.m. on Friday afternoon.
- The Ready to Wear Show will begin at 5:15 and the constructed show will begin at 7:00 p.m. on Friday evening and awards will be presented at the conclusion of each respective show.
- Because there will not be time to go back to the Fairgrounds, bring your entire ensemble with you to the practice on Friday afternoon.
- A dressing room is available for show preparation. We are limited on space, so please be prepared.
- We are highly discouraging seat saving and will require you to leave the room after each show so that we can reset and clean up for the next show.
