Impromptu Presentations Contest

The Impromptu Contest emphasizes the need for participants to think clearly and effectively on a topic with a short amount of preparation time. It is open to participants of all age categories. Contestants can enter both the impromptu contest as well as the prepared presentation contest. Contestants must register in advance to participate.

The contest will run as follows:

1. In an effort to accommodate varying schedules, contestants will present in the order they show up for the contest.
2. The topic drawing and preparation rooms will be separate from the speaking room(s).
3. When it is a contestant's turn, he/she will randomly draw three topics from a pool of questions. The contestant will select the one he/she would like to give the presentation about and return the other two to the pool. No two contestants will speak on the same topic.
 - a. Questions will be relative to today's youth and may include current events, 4-H, and/or social issues. Examples of the type of questions include:

 - iii. If I could describe my personality as a tree, which tree would I be?
 - iv. What has being involved in 4-H taught me?
4. Upon selection of the chosen topic, the contestant will be allowed 3 minutes to organize his/her thoughts before beginning the presentation.
5. Contestants will be allowed to organize their thoughts on a blank note card supplied at the event. Seniors are limited to one note card. Excessive use of notes may be counted against the contestant. This will be at the discretion of the judges.
6. Each speech will be timed. Two points will be deducted for each 30 seconds over or under the time limit. The following time limits have been set for each age group:
