Judging Youth Projects

Projects are the useful tasks that challenge youth and the process through which growth occurs.

Helping a member evaluate their project work provides incentive and points the way to personal growth. Judges should remember that the primary goal in 4-H is always youth development.

Instructors include:

Tansey Sussex
(307) 633-4383
susssex@uwyo.edu

Dawn Sanchez
(307) 783-0570
DawnS@uwyo.edu

Brittany Johnson
(307) 633-4383
bjohns92@uwyo.edu

Johnathan Despain
(307) 766-5170
jdespain@uwyo.edu

Amber Armajo
(307) 347-3431
AMWall@uwyo.edu
Interested in becoming a static/interview judge for 4-H?

Need to know more about 4-H to become a better judge?

Interested in judging more?

Attend a certification workshop and become part of a list for quality judges which recognize the goal in 4-H is youth development.

February 14, 2015
1:00pm-5:00p.m.
Eastern Wyoming College
3200 W. C Street
Torrington, WY

Fee: $25 (Lunch is included at noon)
Please register by Jan. 10, 2015
A minimum of 10 is needed for this training to be held.

Registration and fees can be found at http://bit.ly/1xY7nL9

Since the training will be held during the 2015 State Leaders’ Conference you will be registering as a part time conference attendee. You are welcome to attend our conference for the first half of the day if you wish. You can select additional classes when you register. For more information contact Tansey Sussex at (307) 633-4383 or your local extension office.

WY 4-H Fair Judges Database
Please go to: http://www.wyomingextension.org/4hjudging to create your judges’ profile. After completing this training, a star will be added to your profile indicating you are a Certified Wyoming 4-H Judge. Learn more about the database at the certification training!

Leaders are invited to learn more about how projects are judged.