

The Students of the University of Wyoming College of Law Bring You

2021

Law Week

Monday, October 11

12:20 – 1:15 pm | Room 170 | Sponsored by Women's Law Forum

Domestic Violence in the Time of COVID-19

COVID-19 has affected domestic violence rates in rural and urban areas.

What are the potential impacts on domestic violence rates after COVID-19?

Panelists: Jeanne Core (WCDVSA) and Laure Ruth (Maryland Women's Center)

4:30 – 5:30 pm | Room 170 | Sponsored by the Federalist Society

The Economic Impact of COVID-19 Policies

Insights on how COVID-19 policies have impacted – and will continue to impact – the U.S. economy.

Speaker: Jeremy Kidd is a law and economics scholar at Drake University Law School

6:00 pm | Room 178 | Sponsored by The American Constitution Society, UW Chapter

A Modern Constitutional Convention: The Experts Weigh in Regarding Article V

Would another Constitutional Convention, the first since 1787, be possible? How might it impact the US?

Panelists: Wilfred Codrington III (Brooklyn Law School), Anthony Johnstone (University of Montana Blewett School of Law) with Moderator: Stephen Feldman (UW College of Law)

ALL ARE WELCOME
Refreshments
Served
7.25 CLE Credits

Tuesday, October 12

12:00 – 1:15pm | Room 170 | Sponsored by Beyond the Law

Practicing Beyond the Law

This attorney has utilized skills he acquired earning his JD as he practices in education administration.

Speaker: Thomas Layzell is a consultant with extensive experience in state higher education systems

6:00 pm | Room 178 | Sponsored by Equal Justice Wyoming

Juvenile Justice in Wyoming

An exploration of the juvenile brain + recent national and local cases, with perspectives from the bench.

Panelists: Kate M. Fox, (Chief Justice of the WY Supreme Court), Karagh Brummond, PhD (UW Honors College and UW Science Initiative), Devon Petersen (Fleener Peterson Law), Lauren McLane (UW College of Law Defender Aid Clinic)

Wednesday, October 13

12:20 – 1:15pm | Room 170 | Sponsored by the Wyoming Trial Lawyers Association

The Path to Trial Law

Attorneys share experience and insights and provide steps to further your career in litigation.

Panelists: Devon O'Connell (Pence and MacMillan, LLC), Phillip Nicholas (Nicholas & Tangeman, LLC) and Grant Lawson (Metier Law Firm)

6:00pm | Room 178 | Sponsored by Dean Klint Alexander

The Politics of War: My 10 Year Journey with Peter Jennings

A former UN bureau chief shares stories of working with a legendary news anchor during the 1990s.

Speaker: William Thomas Osborne is an author and previous investigative reporter in Bosnia and Iraq.

Thursday, October 14

9:00am – 12:00pm | Room 178, the UW College of Law's Moot Courtroom

Wyoming Supreme Court Oral Arguments with Q & A to Follow

Observe actual oral arguments from the Wyoming Supreme Court docket.

Justices: Catherine Fox (Chief Justice), Michael Davis, Keith Kautz, Lynne Boomgaarden, Kari Jo Gray

5:00pm | Room 178 | Sponsored by OUTLAW

Changing the Landscape for LGBTQ+ Rights

Topics include adoption, common law marriage issues, and the new Texas legislation on abortion.

Speaker: Rachel Catt is a Denver attorney with 20 years' experience with LGBTQ+ family law cases

Friday, October 15

6:00pm | Alice Hardie Stevens Center, Iverson Mansion, 603 Iverson Avenue, Laramie

Trelease Dinner Tickets: $25 from Oct 4 - 8 from the Potter Law Club at (307) 766-6416

At least 40 million people draw water from the Colorado River Basin. The Colorado River Compact — a historic document which turns 100 in 2022 — controls access to the river system's flows.

Speaker: Jason Robison, professor of law and water law and policy expert at the UW College of Law