

UNIVERSITY
OF WYOMING

College of Health Sciences
Fay W. Whitney
School of Nursing

THE WORLD NEEDS MORE OUTSIDE THINKERS.

Position #213434:

Associate Dean / Associate Professor

A well-qualified candidate will be visionary, flexible, innovative and willing to lead and support a dynamic group of faculty, staff and students in the rural mountain west. The Associate Dean will serve a 12-month appointment acting as a liaison for the Dean of the School of Nursing.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

The Associate Dean is responsible for internal leadership and administration, curriculum development, accreditation, student recruitment, admissions and progression, program evaluation, faculty development and development of faculty research/scholarship. Moreover, the Associate Dean will teach in the graduate program, have an active program of research as well as a strong service perspective.

Remote Work Eligibility:

This position provides vital support to campus stakeholders and requires the successful candidate to work on campus.

Minimum qualifications

- Doctoral degree in nursing from an accredited institution or Master’s degree in nursing from an accredited institution with doctoral degree in related field
- Must be eligible to work within clinical practice setting in the state of Wyoming (current CPR, immunizations etc.
- At least five(5) years of experience practicing in nursing. Eligible for unencumbered RN licensure in Wyoming.
- History of experience in curriculum development, accreditation, and program evaluation
- Record of teaching and scholarship to warrant tenure and appointment to Associate Professor/Professor rank
- Evidence of leadership experience
- Commitment to working in a culturally diverse environment; ability to work with students, employees, vendors and community members from diverse backgrounds
- Valid driver’s license with a motor vehicle record (MVR) that is compliant with the University Vehicle Use Policy

Desired qualifications

- Excellent written and oral communication skills as evidenced by a record of publications and presentations.
- Experience working with and recruiting a diverse body of students, faculty and
- Interest in rural healthcare education and practice

Application Procedure

- This position will remain open until filled. Complete applications received by 11/01/2022 will receive full consideration.

Required Materials

- Online application
- Resume or CV
- Cover letter
- Contact information for four work-related references

UW is an Affirmative Cation/Equal Opportunity Educator and Employer. We are committed to a multicultural environment and strongly encourage applications from women, minorities, veterans and persons with disabilities. In compliance with ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA), if you have a disability and would like to request accommodation to apply roe a position, please call 307-766-2377 or email jobapps@uwyo.edu. We conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Offers of employment are contingent upon the completion of the background check.