

DECARBONIZATION PRIZE

Student Innovation Competition

BIG IDEAS WANTED.

Sponsored by Baker Hughes, the UW School of Energy Resources and the Wyoming Energy Authority, the 'Decarbonization Prize' is a student innovation competition seeking decarbonization proposals to improve the production, transportation, storage, and utilization of various commercial industries.

The 2022 Competition will focus on the advancement of hydrogen.

Applicants:

The competition is open to all UW undergraduate and graduate students

Team Size:

Minimum 2 Members/Maximum 6 Members per team

Expertise:

All majors and disciplines encouraged to apply and collaborate

COMPETITION INFO SESSIONMARCH 2, 2022*PROPOSAL SUBMISSION DEADLINE*APRIL 1, 2022*FOR MORE DETAILS VISITwww.uwyo.edu/ser/events/

CASH PRIZES

First Place $2,500
Second Place $1,500
Third Place $1,000

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

School of Energy Resources

WYOMING
ENERGY
AUTHORITY