

Music–Keyboard Performance, BM

University of Wyoming, 2017-18

A Bachelor in Music Performance is a four-year course of study designed for students who wish to prepare for a professional career as performer and applied teacher. An audition is required for all students wishing to major or minor in music at the University of Wyoming. After applying to UW, interested students should go to www.uwyo.edu/music for more information about the auditioning process. More detailed information about the program, its requirements, and fees can be found in the Music Department's Student Handbook which is available at www.uwyo.edu/music/forms/index.html. The Music Department is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.

University of Wyoming, 2017-18

Music - Instrumental Performance Program Notes:

• A grade of C must be earned in all MUSC courses. • As a professional degree, the Bachelor of Music requires students to take more than 60 hours in their major subject.

* All music majors must successfully complete MUSC 0200 (Music Convocation) each semester and must enroll in lessons and one ensemble per semester. • All music majors begin applied lessons at the 2000-level. Previous training must be proven with an audition. • Music majors must play in one ensemble each semester; scholarship recipients must play in two ensembles each semester. For students majoring in Keyboard Performance, Collaborative Piano is the ensemble course.

 All music majors must pass a piano proficiency test during their sophomore year (MUSC 2395).

 Music majors may not continue to 4000-level lessons without successful completion of the sophomore jury.

* Upper Division Music Electives. Must choose nine (9) hours from the following courses:
