UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING REGULATIONS

Subject: Appointment, Evaluation and Removal of Academic Officers
Number: UW Regulation 2-8

I. PURPOSE

To provide consistent definitions of academic administrative structures and positions, and to describe terms of appointments and general provisions regarding academic officers.

II. DEFINITIONS

Academic Officer: Those Officers designated in UW Regulation 1-1 as University or Academic officers who are under the authority of and who reports directly to the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs. Academic Officers have a variety of titles at the University, including Vice Provost, Associate Vice Provost, Dean, Executive Director, and Director.

Academic Unit: A department, center, institute, school, college or other academic division to which University faculty are assigned under the aegis of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Associate or Assistant Dean: An academic officer who reports directly to the Dean. The scope of duties may vary depending on the organizational structure and complexity of the college. An Associate Dean shall be a faculty member and may have the authority to act for the Dean in a broad range of areas. The Assistant Dean title may be held by a faculty member, senior staff member or administrative professional, and generally has a narrower scope of duties than the Associate Dean.

At-Will: An at-will appointment allows either the employee, or the employer to end the employment relationship at any time for any reason or for no reason.

Unit Head: An academic officer, whether designated as head, chairperson, division director, dean or director of a school within a college, or similar title, with responsibility for the leadership and management of an academic unit other than a college of the University or the Haub School of Environment and Natural Resources.

III. POLICY

The Trustees of the University of Wyoming observe a policy of administrative accountability, through the President, for the effective operation and distinctive quality of the University. The President is responsible for recommending the appointment or removal of all administrative and Academic Officers of the University, including the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs, Vice Provost, Associate Vice Provosts and Deans, and assuring regular evaluation of their performance. All such University officers serve at the pleasure of the Trustees and may be removed, upon recommendation of the President, at any time and for any reason that is not illegal.

Academic administrators College and unit level officers serve several roles as managers of the university, leaders of their academic units, and representatives of the views and interests of their academic colleagues. Therefore, the appointment, evaluation or removal of Academic administrators Officers by the President normally shall involve significant faculty participation. This Regulation sets forth the process for personnel treatment of academic administrators and establishes the manner in which faculty participation is anticipated in the process on a timely and consistent basis.

IV. TERMS OF APPOINTMENT
