

Confidential Financial Statement
Graduate Student
2019

Every applicant to the University of Wyoming must have sufficient funds to meet his or her educational needs. For this reason, we ask you to complete the following Confidential Financial Statement. It is your responsibility to demonstrate that you have sufficient funding to meet all University and living expenses for at least the first year of your studies.

The estimated financial cost for one academic year (nine months) of study at the University of Wyoming is:

Table with 2 columns: Single Student (non-resident tuition) and Married Student (no children and non-resident)1. Rows include Tuition and Fees, Program Fees2, Living Expenses, and TOTAL.

You will need an additional $7,400 if you plan to attend summer session. All international students are required to participate in the University's health insurance program. The cost is approximately $2,483 per year and the program is mandatory with family rates also available for the student.

The University of Wyoming Trustees may change tuition and fees at any time. All amounts above are estimates only and may vary according to your habits and lifestyles. These estimates assume a modest standard of living and don't include any personal expenses students may incur.
