

University of Wyoming
American Heritage Center

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Compiled By Chris Muscato, 2013

Introduction

The American Heritage Center (AHC) is the University of Wyoming's (UW) repository for historical manuscripts, rare books, and university archives. Internationally known for its historical collections, the AHC first and foremost serves the students and citizens of Wyoming. The AHC sponsors a wide range of scholarly and popular programs including lectures, symposia, and exhibits. A place where both experts and novices engage with the original sources of history, access to the AHC is free and open to all.

Collections at the AHC go beyond both the borders of Wyoming and the region, and support a wide range of research and teachings activities in the humanities, sciences, arts, business, and education. Major areas of collecting include Wyoming and the American West, the mining and petroleum industries, environment and natural resources, journalism, military history, transportation, the history of books, and 20th century entertainment such as popular music, radio, television, and film. The total archival holdings of the AHC are roughly 75,000 cubic feet (the equivalent of 18 miles) of material. The Toppan Rare Books Library holds more than 60,000 items from medieval illuminated manuscripts to the 21st century. Subject strengths include the American West, British and American literature, early exploration of North America, religion, hunting and fishing, natural history, women authors, and the book arts.

Organization of the Guide

Entries are arranged alphabetically and include the title, dates, collection number, collection size, and a brief description of the collection's creator and contents. Many of these collections have more in-depth finding aids available online through the Rocky Mountain Online Archive (<http://rmoa.unm.edu>). Catalog records for all collections may be found at <http://uwcatalog.uwyo.edu> (for best results, limit search scope to "American Heritage Center").

Visitor and Contact Information

Current contact information and visitor information including location and hours of operation for the AHC Reading Room and the Toppan Rare Books Library can be found at <http://www.uwyo.edu/ahc>.

Noteworthy Collections

Harry W. Bashore Papers, 1913- 1955 Acc.# 02783

26.97 cubic feet, 56 boxes

Harry W. Bashore (1880-1973), an engineer, worked for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation from 1906-1945. He worked on water reclamation projects in Oregon, Washington, California and Wyoming from 1927-1933. He became assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Reclamation in 1933 and was in charge of all irrigation projects in the West. Bashore became commissioner of the Bureau in 1943 and retired in 1945 and worked as a consulting engineer. In 1952 he consulted on irrigation projects in Israel and helped to work out a treaty between Pakistan and India over the use of the Indus River.

Collection contains materials relating to Bashore's work as an engineer, including subject files on reclamation projects on the Colorado River Basin and the Missouri River Basin, the Bureau of Reclamation, the National Reclamation Association, and the India-Pakistan water dispute (1938-1965); reports by Bashore on water reclamation and irrigation in Israel and the Colorado River Basin (1943-1968); miscellaneous maps (1943-1968); correspondence (1940-1965); newspaper clippings (1938-1953); and 3 78 rpm phonograph records on Boulder Dam, renamed the Hoover Dam in 1947, entitled "Man is a Giant."

Search Terms: US Bureau of Reclamation, Water Rights, Pakistan, Israel, Water Resources Development

Keywords: Irrigation, Consultants, Pakistan, Israel, Indus River, Treaties, Maps, Photographs

Russel Brines Papers, 1924- 1982 Acc.# 08894

4 cubic feet, 4 boxes

Russell Brines (1911-1982) was an Associated Press journalist who covered World War II in the Philippines and Japan and also the Korean War. He was an expert on Japanese and Asian affairs and author of the book "MacArthur's Japan" (1948).

Collection contains personal and professional correspondence (1924-1982); research files on Japan, Vietnam and communist expansion in Asia (1947-1982); 3 scrapbooks; 1 audiocassette tape of a memorial for Brines in Japan (1982); the manuscript for "MacArthur's Japan"; photographs of the Allied occupation of Japan after World War II, the Korean War and Brines; and miscellaneous memorabilia.

Search Terms: Communism, Japan, Korean War

Keywords: Asian Communism, US Government Documents, Pakistan, Vietnam, Korea, Japan

Lloyd Burlingham Papers, 1953- 1970 Acc.# 09528

7.0 cubic feet, 7 boxes

Lloyd Burlingham was born in Manila, Philippines around 1911. He graduated from the University of Rochester in 1952 and then studied at Columbia University's Russian Institute. From 1955 to 1956, he was a research assistant for American University, contributing to books on Cambodia, Laos, and Iran. He joined the United States Information Service (later the United States Information Agency) in 1957 where he worked until 1970. During his government service, he was stationed in Thailand and worked in Buenos Aires and Saigon as well. He served as director of public information for the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, 1961-1965. He died in Perry, New York.

The Lloyd Burlingham collection consists of unsorted correspondence, newspapers and clippings, periodicals relating to foreign relations, internal memoes, press releases, informal field notebooks, and government reports. Within the collection there are some materials that provide insight into the political and military situation in Southeast Asia during the 1960s and a small series of propaganda materials used against the United States in countries like Thailand, Laos, Vietnam in the 1960s. There is some material in Thai and Russian languages. There are also reports and papers dealing with Soviet influence in Southeast Asia and elsewhere.

Search Terms: United States Information Services, United States Information Agency, Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, Diplomatic and Consular Services, Vietnam War, Thailand, Laos, US Foreign Relations

Keywords: Argentina, Latin America, Spanish-Language Papers, Thailand, Bangkok, Thai-Language Papers, Fairs, USIS, US Involvement in Asia, Foreign Perception of USA, SEATO, USOM, US Information Agency, German Foreign affairs, USSR, Vietnam, Vietcong, South Vietnam, French-Language Papers, Bilingual Papers

James Cary Papers, 1949- 2008 Acc.# 05687

1.8 cubic feet, 4 boxes

James Cary was a journalist and writer. As a journalist, Cary worked for the Associated Press, including working for the AP's Tokyo Bureau in the 1950s and 1960s, and also covered Nixon's 1972 trip to China. In 1962 Cary published his first book, "Japan Today: Reluctant Ally," and in the 1990s began work on several novels, including the published work, "Seeds: Search for the Descendants of Christ."

The James Cary papers include articles and opinion pieces written by Cary (1949-1982), correspondence (1964-1972), materials from his press work on Nixon's trip to China, manuscripts for five novels written by Cary (1992-1998), and copies of his published works "Japan Today: Reluctant Ally," "Seeds: Search for the Descendants of Christ," and "From a Wilderness: Four Stories on the Building of America."

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Search Terms: Journalism, Foreign Correspondents- Japan, Richard Nixon, Japan, China

Keywords: Journalism, Foreign Correspondents, Nixon, China, Japan, Communism

Boris Chaliapin Papers, 1929- 1975 Acc.# 07953

.9 cubic feet, 2 boxes

Boris Chaliapin (1904-1979) was a Russian born artist who specialized in portraits. He was best known for the over 400 covers he drew for "Time" magazine from the 1940s to 1960s.

Collection includes correspondence (1950-1970); catalog, in Russian, of 1975 one-man show in Moscow; 1972 biography, in Russian; 9 "Time" magazine cover sheets; and newspaper and magazine clippings related to Chaliapin's art.

Search Terms: Time, Magazine Covers, Portrait painting

Keywords: Russian, Artist, Illustrator, TIME, Pop Culture

Howard L. Chernoff Papers, 1936- 1982 Acc.# 07837

12.54 cubic feet, 26 boxes

Howard L. Chernoff (1907-) was a newspaper and radio journalist. After an early career in Ohio newspapers, he became general manager of the West Virginia Network in 1938 and reported by radio from Europe during World War II. After the war, Chernoff moved to San Diego to be general manager of the San Diego Journal and KFMB radio and television stations. In 1965 he became assistant director of the U.S. Information Agency. Chernoff was also president of the San Diego Zoological Society and commissioner general for the U.S. exhibit at Expo 70 in Japan. He took part in U.S. government tours of Vietnam, Outer Mongolia, and Iran.

The collection contains professional and personal correspondence; transcripts of radio broadcasts; photographs; scrapbooks and clippings; and subject files and other materials on Japan, Vietnam, Outer Mongolia, Iran, and zoos.

Search Terms: United States Information Agency, Expo '70, United States Foreign Relations- Japan

Keywords: USIA, Japan, Ambassadors, Expo '70, Osaka, US Pavilion, Government Tours Vietnam/Iran/Mongolia, Japanese- Language Documents, Czechoslovakian Artists

John S. Cotton Papers, 1912- 1980 Acc.# 06499
24.37 cubic feet, 54 boxes

John Sterling Cotton (b. 1901) was a consulting engineer on various water and hydroelectric projects in the United States and abroad. He worked as chief engineer in charge of hydroelectric development in China prior to 1948. Cotton also served as a consultant on projects in Turkey, Korea, Israel, Afghanistan, British Columbia and in the United States.

Collection contains materials relating to Cotton's work as an engineer, including miscellaneous blueprints (1912-1955); news clippings; correspondence (1921, 1930-1974); miscellaneous maps; 3 photograph albums of construction projects; research notebooks on dams, flood control and water resources in Asia and the Middle East (1941-1979); and subject files on water resources, hydroelectricity, flood control, and construction projects (1966-1980).

Search Terms: Dams, Flood Control, Asia, Middle East, Water Resource Development

Keywords: Foreign Government Documents, Irrigation, Water Resource Development, Blueprints, Photographs, Turkey, Korea, Afghanistan, Sri Lanka, Ceylon

Paul Deutschman Collection Acc. # 07890
55 cubic feet, 72 boxes

Paul Deutschman was a foreign correspondent for Life, Newsweek, and The Nation. During World War II, he was stationed in North Africa and kept a diary about the war. Life magazine later published it and it became the first eye witness account of the effects of Allied bombing on civilians. In addition, he wrote for YANK, the U.S. Army Weekly. Deutschman also wrote for popular magazines such as Collier's, Esquire, Harper, and Sports Illustrated. In 1950, he went to Paris to be the Head of Magazine Information for the Marshall Plan, and covered several European countries. In the 1960s, he worked for the Secretary of State as a liaison between the department and national magazines. He wrote one fiction novel titled The Adipose Complex, and was working on a novel about World War II at the time of his death in 2002.

This collection documents Deutschman's career as a freelance writer, foreign correspondent, and U.S. government employee. It contains professional correspondence and memos, 1945-1977, field notebooks, and subject folders with memos, outlines, reports, and secondary material on African and Middle Eastern countries and other topics pertaining to Deutschman's journalistic reporting. There are several boxes of manuscripts, drafts, and outlines for Deutschman's articles and books, including tapes of interviews for his book on Israel. Finally, this collection contains World War II material including Deutschman's diaries, photographs, letters to him in French and Italian, manuscripts for YANK, and African battle maps. Also included is correspondence, newsletters, and photographs from his infantry reunions in the 1980s and 1990s.

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Search Terms: Foreign Correspondents, War Correspondents, Journalism, Authors

Keywords: Developism; International Business, Economic Theories, Foreign Correspondents, Africa (Gabon, Nigeria), Middle East (Iran, Pakistan, Israel), India, Asia, Europe (Germany, Italy, UK, Sardinia, Turkey), American Schools in Iran, Pakistan, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Israel, Taiwan, Switzerland, Taiwan, Venezuela

Slobodan Draskovich Papers, 1949- 1974 Acc.# 05176
.45 cubic feet, 1 box

Slobodan M. Draskovich (1910-) was born in Yugoslavia, earned his Ph.D. from the University of Munich in 1933 and was a professor of economics at the University of Belgrade until 1941. He was a prisoner of war in Italy and Germany during World War II. Draskovich emigrated to the United States in 1947 and edited a Serbian newspaper in Chicago, Illinois. He wrote and lectured against communism and U.S. policy towards Yugoslavia. In the early 1960s Draskovich wrote a monthly column for "American Opinion" entitled "On the Cold War Front."

Collection contains articles, essays, speeches, congressional testimony and correspondence by Draskovich concerning Yugoslavia, Josip Broz Tito, Milovan Djilas, anti-communism, U.S. summit conferences with the Soviet Union and the Watergate hearings. Also included is Draskovich's book, "Tito: Moscow's Trojan Horse."

Search Terms: Josip Broz Tito, Milovan Djilas, Communism, Anti-Communist Movements, Watergate, Yugoslavia, Soviet Union, Foreign Relations

Keywords: Yugoslavia, Serbians, Anti-Communist, Tito, USSR Foreign Policy, American Foreign Policy, Exiled Serbians, Communist Yugoslavia

Kurt Glaser Papers, 1944- 1982 Acc.# 08294
47.70 cubic feet, 52 boxes

Kurt Glaser (1914-1993) was an employee of the U. S. Government and a professor of political science. After earning a PhD from Harvard in 1941, he spent 12 years in Washington D. C. working for the Social Security Board and the Department of Agriculture. From 1946-1950, Glaser worked for the Military Government in Germany and as a government affairs officer with the U. S. High Command. After two years as a journalist in Munich, Glaser returned to the United States and pursued a career in academia. He was a professor at Southern Illinois from 1959-1983 and at Tankang University in Taiwan from 1983-1989.

The Kurt Glaser collection contains manuscripts, correspondence, clippings, and reports relating to post WW II European politics, intelligence services, and Radio Free Europe.

Also included are research material for Glaser's book "Victims of Politics" and lecture notes for courses he taught.

Search Terms: Radio Free Europe, Germany, Czechoslovakia

Keywords: Radio Free Europe, Germany, Czechoslovakia, German-Language Documents, Africa

Joseph Gould Papers, 1886- 1976 Acc.# 07302
28.35 cubic feet, 63 boxes

Joseph S. Gould (1899-1977), an economist, was head of the department of economics and business administration at the University of Delaware from 1929-1946. After World War II, he held various posts with the World Bank, International Monetary Fund and United Nations and served as an economic consultant to countries throughout the Far East.

Collection contains correspondence (1927-1976); subject files including materials on Brunei, Indonesia, Thailand, China, and the University of Delaware; manuscripts of articles, chiefly by Gould; notebooks; photographs; reports; speeches; maps; pamphlets; newspaper and periodical clippings; personal financial and tax records; and miscellaneous other materials.

Search Terms: World Bank, United Nations, Economic Development, Brunei, Thailand, China, Indonesia, Asia

Keywords: Economic Development, Economic Advisor, Brunei, Indonesia, Taiwan, Thailand, China, Malay-Language Documents, Thai-Language Documents, International Bank, World Bank, USA in SE Asia, USSR in SE Asia

Parker T. Hart Acc.# 09026
18.6 cubic feet, 19 boxes

A Foreign Service officer for 31 years, U.S. Ambassador Parker Thompson Hart was born September 28, 1910 in Massachusetts and was educated at Dartmouth College and Harvard University. Hart began his diplomatic career in 1938 as vice consul in Austria then in Brazil. In 1944, he went to the Middle East and opened the first U.S. consulate in Saudi Arabia at Dhahran, site of newly discovered oil fields. In 1947 he began working for the State Department and in 1952, became the Middle East director. He moved quickly up the career ladder to deputy assistant secretary for the Middle East, and ambassador to Saudi Arabia then Turkey. Next, Hart served as assistant secretary of state for Near Eastern and South Asian Affairs and as director of the Foreign Service Institute. He retired from foreign service and became president of the Middle East Institute from 1969 until 1972. Then, for the next 18 years, he worked as a consultant and special representative for the Middle East and North Africa for Bechtel Corporation, and did private consulting work for other large corporations. Hart died in 1997.

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Papers contain correspondence, reports, speeches, copies of papers presented, and subject files about development of business possibilities in, and the political climate of, the Middle East for his consulting work with the Bechtel Corporation, RCA, U.S. Steel, and IBM.

Search Terms: Bechtel, Industrial Development Projects, Middle East

Keywords: Africa, Middle East (Saudi Arabia, Iran, Iraq, Afghanistan), Latin America, Ambassador, Europe, China, USSR, Oil, Steel, Industrial Development, US Business Abroad, Pipelines, SUEZ, Boycott, Middle Eastern Studies

Ray Josephs Papers, 1938- 1995 Acc.# 09104

40.93 cubic feet, 93 boxes

Ray Josephs (1912-), a journalist and business consultant, worked as a reporter for the Philadelphia "Evening Bulletin" in Buenos Aires, Argentina from 1939-1946. In 1960 he founded International Public Relations Company, Ltd. (IPRC), a consulting firm which specializes in assisting Japanese companies with public relations in the United States. Josephs is the author of "Argentine Diary," a book about his experience in Argentina and several self-help books.

Collection contains materials relating to Josephs' career as a journalist, consultant and author. Collection includes correspondence regarding "Argentine Diary," the IPRC and personal affairs (1942-1995); materials relating to the Business Council for International Understanding (1973-1990); extensive subject files relating to his work as a foreign correspondent, on the operations of IPRC and Japanese corporations operating in the U.S., and the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York (1944-1991); 1 16 mm and 1 8 mm film of Josephs; and the manuscripts along with correspondence and research notes for many of his writings including the book "How to Gain an Extra Hour Every Day" (1938-1994).

Search Terms: Journalism, Argentina, Jewish Philanthropies

Keywords: Journalism, Japan, International Public Relations, Advertising, American Express, Latin/South America, Spanish-Language Documents, Portuguese-Language Documents, Jewish Philanthropies, international business, Trade Development

Irene Kuhn Papers, 1919- 2000 Acc.# 08536

32.53 ft3, 36 boxes

Irene Corbally Kuhn (1900-1995) began her 50 year career as a journalist in 1919. During the 1920s she worked in Paris, Shanghai, and Hawaii. In 1926, she moved to New York City where she was a feature writer for The Daily News. In 1939 Kuhn wrote her memoirs, "Assigned to Adventure". Kuhn worked for NBC from 1940 to 1949 as a war correspondent in the China-Burma-India Theater. She also hosted radio programs including, "Irene Kuhn's Feature Page," and later, "The Kuhns," with her daughter, Rene Kuhn Bryant. She wrote articles about communism and socialism in America for publications such as "The American Legion" and "American Mercury". She also wrote a syndicated column, "It's My Opinion", from 1953 to 1969. In addition, she wrote articles and columns for magazines such as "Gourmet" and "Travel".

This collection documents Irene Kuhn's work as a writer, journalist, and radio show host. Writings include magazine and newspaper articles, drafts of books and articles, and typed manuscripts. There are typescripts and audio recordings of Kuhn's radio programs. Other materials related to her work include awards, date books, field research notebooks, and correspondence. In addition, there are several photographs and slides documenting Kuhn's work and personal life.

Search Terms: Women and Journalism, Women War Correspondents, China, Radio Broadcasting

Keywords: Women, Journalism, War Correspondents, China, Taiwan, Communism, France, French-Language Documents, Coca-Cola, Philippines, Mexico, Ireland, Hawaii

Tom Lambert Papers, 1939- 1977 Acc.# 03395

4.75 cubic feet, 11 boxes

Tom Lambert was a newspaper correspondent for the Associated Press, Time, Inc., the New York Herald Tribune and the Los Angeles Times from 1942-1977. He was stationed in Korea, Moscow, South Africa and London among other places. He covered a great number of news projects including national and foreign politics, economics and the Korean War.

Includes some correspondence and stories and newspaper articles covering the Korean War, Moscow and Johannesburg. Includes one folder of stories from Moscow that were censored.

Search Terms: Politics, Korean War, Soviet Union, South Africa

Keywords: USSR, Moscow, Journalism, Associated Press, Japan, China, Cuba, Haiti, Middle East, Censorship

Walter J. Levy Papers, 1911- 1988 Acc.# 08428

41 cubic feet, 102 boxes

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Levy was born in Hamburg, Germany and received a doctorate in law from Kiel University in 1933. He left Germany shortly thereafter due to the growing Nazi influence and moved to London to work for the "Petroleum Press Service," a journal of petroleum economics. He emigrated to New York in 1941 and worked briefly as a petroleum writer for "Fortune" magazine. In 1942 he joined the U.S. Office of Strategic Services as a petroleum advisor to the Joint Chiefs of Staff. From 1948 to 1949 he was chief of the petroleum branch of the Economic Cooperation Administration, an agency of the Marshall Plan. In 1949 Levy established his own oil consulting firm, W.J. Levy Consulting Corp., in New York City. In addition to his regular consulting duties, he has acted as an advisor to the Truman, Kennedy, and Nixon administrations; the United Nations; and the European Economic Community. Levy served as an advisor to envoy W. Averell Harriman from 1951 to 1953 after Iran nationalized its oil facilities in 1951. In 1963, Levy served as an advisor to Kentucky Lieutenant Governor Wilson Wyatt, who had been appointed by President Kennedy to negotiate an agreement between the government of Indonesia and oil companies from the United States.

Collection contains materials dealing with Levy's work in the petroleum industry and trade, international finance, economics, world politics, and foreign relations between the U.S. and Middle Eastern countries and in Asia, particularly Iran and Indonesia from 1911-1988. The collection contains speeches (1936-1988); correspondence relating to his work for the U.S. government and with various countries, especially Iran and Indonesia (1933-1987); extensive reports completed by Levy's consulting firm on world oil production, oil markets, oil policy and trade, and individual refineries (1941-1988); and scrapbooks (1911-1983) with photographs, newsclippings, and awards. The collection also contains a 3/4 inch and Beta videocassette of Levy appearing on ABC News in 1982 and an audiocassette tape of Levy being interviewed by the British Broadcasting Company. Portions of the collection are in French, German, and Spanish.

Search Terms: Petroleum Industry and Trade, Anglo-Iranian Oil Dispute, Energy Policy

Keywords: Iran, Middle East, Asia, SE Asia, Oil, Oil Trade/Negotiations, Iran Shah, NIOC, German-Language Document, Spanish-Language Documents, French-Language Documents

Michel Michelet Papers 1944- 1980 Acc.# 02378 11.52 cubic feet, 13 boxes

Michel Michelet (1894-1995) was a Russian born musical composer who wrote and arranged musical scores for several motion pictures including "The Chase," "The Man on the Eiffel Tower" and "Outpost in Morocco". In 1945 he was nominated for an Oscar for Best Music, Scoring of a Dramatic or Comedy Picture for his scores for "The Hairy Ape" and "A Voice in the Wind." Other names used by Michelet include: Michel Levine, Michael Lâevine, and Michael Michelet. Russian Jew who fled to Paris from Nazis, incorporates many Hebrew melodies.

The Michel Michelet papers include articles and reviews by Michelet, sound recordings and Michelet arrangements for Russian folk songs and other lyrics. The bulk of the collection consists of various music scores, vocal arrangements and film scores written by Michelet.

Keywords: Russian, Music, Film, Russian Folk Songs, Hebrew Melodies

Cao Kỳ Nguyễn, Papers, 1965- 1987 Acc.# 00890

1.4 ft3, 3 boxes, 1 folder

Cao Ky Nguyen fought with the French forces that opposed the Vietnamese Liberation Movement. When Vietnam was partitioned in 1954, he joined the Vietnamese Air Force and became commander after the 1963 overthrow of Ngo Dinh Diem. In 1971 he failed to win an election against incumbent President Thieu, so he returned to the Air Force. He escaped from Vietnam in 1975 and settled in the United States. Colonel George Budway was Commander of the Tan Son Nhut Air Base in South Vietnam from April, 1965 until May, 1966 when he formed a friendship with Nguyen Cao Ky, Defense Minister and future leader of South Vietnam. Colonel Budway and journalist Charles J. V. Murphy collaborated with Nguyen Cao Ky in conducting a number of interviews. Murphy planned to write a book on Nguyen Cao Ky during 1967-1968, but he abandoned the project. Murphy and Budway maintained a correspondence between 1967 and 1984.

The Nguyen Cao Ky materials include correspondence, manuscripts, photographs, reel to reel recordings, transcripts, and other written materials. Most of these items trace the career of Nguyen Cao Ky as an important member of the South Vietnamese government and its military forces until 1966. The photographs were made to record Nguyen Cao Ky's appearance at formal occasions.

Search Terms: Ngoc Linh Nguyen, Vietnam, Vietnam Republic

Keywords: Vietnam, Vietnamese Politicians, Interviews, Speeches, South Vietnam, King's Ranch, Nixon, South Vietnam Prime Minister

Joseph Becker Phillips Papers, 1926- 1948 Acc.# 06311

.9 cubic feet, 2 boxes

Joseph Becker Phillips (1900-1977) was a journalist with the New York "Herald-Tribune" from 1926-1937 and was stationed in Paris, London, Rome and Moscow. He was later an editor with "Newsweek" magazine from 1938-1941 and 1946-1950. From 1942-1944 Phillips was a public relations officer to General Dwight D. Eisenhower and a special assistant to the U.S. Ambassador to the Soviet Union from 1944-1945.

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Collection contains diaries kept while in Paris, London, Rome and Moscow describing his work as a reporter and his experiences in World War II (1926-1946); 2 scrapbooks; photographs of Phillips in the Republic of Georgia in the Soviet Union (1936); and transcripts of interviews with the "Herald-Tribune" and "Newsweek" (1934-1948).

Search Terms: Journalism, Paris, Moscow, Newsweek, Russia

Keywords: Diaries, Interviews, Ambassadors, Foreign Correspondents, Press, USSR, Georgia, Germany

Donald R. Sabin Papers, Acc.# 07149

3.15 cubic feet, 7 boxes

Donald R. Sabin, a 1925 graduate of the University of Wyoming, worked as a University agronomist before serving as the Wyoming executive officer of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration from 1934-1944. In 1944 he joined the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, overseeing relief efforts in China, Poland and eastern Europe. Sabin later joined the United Nations Children's Fund and in 1967 became executive director of the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee, which oversees humanitarian work in more than twenty countries.

Collection contains materials relating to Sabin's humanitarian work, including correspondence, some of which is in Polish (1925-1971); maps of Poland; news clippings (1947-1967); journals on a trip to Europe (1949); reports and articles written by Sabin concerning rehabilitation, foreign trade, crops and the needs of children (1947-1951); photographs and collages made of photographs of Yugoslavia, Poland and Turkey dealing with post-war agriculture, industrial rehabilitation, the repatriation of refugees (1945-1957); and speeches (1947-1948).

Search Terms: United Nations, Relief, Agriculture, Rehabilitation, Reconstruction

Keywords: Poland, Photographs, Polish-Language Documents, WRA, Relocation, Maps, UN, UNICEF

Irwin Morris Tobin Papers, 1932- 1982 Acc.# 08730

5 cubic feet, 5 boxes

Irwin M. Tobin (1913-1982), a foreign service officer, worked for the U.S. Office of War Information in London during World War II. He joined the U.S. Department of State as a European labor advisor in 1945, and was later assigned to embassies in Austria, Germany and Yugoslavia. He served as the State Department's officer in charge of NATO political affairs from 1959-1961 and was an advisor on international affairs for the Office of Science and Technology in the Executive Office of the President from 1963-1965.

Collection is chiefly files of correspondence, notes, manuscripts, printed reports, memorandums, newspaper clippings, reprints, and speeches related to Irwin's work with the Office of War Information, Department of State, and Office of Science and Technology. Also includes biographical information, appointment books and class notes.

Search Terms: United States Foreign Relations, Soviet Union, Yugoslavia, Cuba, Austria, Germany, Great Britain, United States Office of War Information

Keywords: Labor, Russian-Language Newspapers, USSR, USSR/USA Relations, Cuba, Spanish-Language Papers, Castro, Panama Canal, Nixon Foreign Policy, Japan, Japanese-Language Texts, US Ambassador in Communist Countries, National War College

Alan K. Simpson papers, 1911- 2008 Acc.# 10449
362.7 cubic feet, 746 boxes

Alan Kooi Simpson was born September 2, 1931, the son of former Wyoming Governor and U.S. Senator Milward Lee Simpson. He attended school in Cody, Wyoming, and graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1954. He then joined the U.S. Army and served overseas. Following his discharge in 1956, he returned to the University of Wyoming and earned his Juris Doctorate in 1958. He joined his father's law firm and practiced law in Cody for the next 18 years. During that time he also served as city attorney (1959-1969) and as assistant attorney general of Wyoming (1959).

Simpson began his political career in 1964 when he was elected to the Wyoming State Legislature. He served 13 years in the Wyoming House of Representatives. In 1978, he was elected to the U.S. Senate. While in the Senate, Simpson served as majority leader, assistant minority leader, and chairman of the Veterans' Affairs Committee. He also served on the Judiciary Committee and chaired its Subcommittee on Immigration and Refugee Policy, the Environment and Public Works Committee, the Finance Committee's Subcommittee on Social Security and Family Policy, the Special Committee on Aging, and the Select Committee to Investigate Undercover Operations of the FBI and the Department of Justice. After retiring from the Senate in 1997, Simpson served as director of the Institute of Politics at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government (1998-2000) then returned to Wyoming to resume practicing law. He was selected as co-chairman of the Continuity of Government Commission after the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on the United States, and also served on the American Battle Monuments Commission. In addition, he served on the boards of several corporations and was chairman of the board of trustees for the Buffalo Bill Historical Center in Cody, Wyoming.

Papers document the career of this former U.S. Republican Senator from Wyoming and contain press files, personal and press photographs, constituent correspondence with a small amount of casework files, legislative and committee records, office files, personal and family papers, Simpson law office files, and Wyoming State Legislature records.

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Also included are papers documenting Simpson's career after retirement from the U.S. Senate, including his tenure at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

Search Terms: Legislators, Politicians, Congress, Senate, Wyoming

Keywords: Senator, Cold War, Foreign Relations, Middle East, Central/South America, SE Asia, Asia, UN, Europe, Senate Resolutions, SALT II, Reagan Foreign Policy, Arms Sales to Saudi Arabia, Gorbachev

Ray Vicker Letters to Clancy Topp, 1975- 1985 Acc.# 10612 0.25 cubic feet, 1 box

Ray Vicker was an author and journalist specializing in international commerce and politics.

The collection contains 70 letters and cards from Ray Vicker to Clancy Topp in which Vicker recounts his first hand experiences as a journalist in Lebanon, Athens, Libya, Iran, India and Central Africa. Some letters describe life in Iran and Beirut during their 1970s revolutions, Middle Eastern diplomacy, and conversations with King Hussein of Jordan.

Search Terms: King of Jordan, Journalism, Lebanon, Iran

Keywords: Journalism, Kissinger, King of Jordan, United Arab Emirates, Oil, Iran, US/Iran relations, Iranian Revolution, Lebanon, Iraq, Africa, Taiwan, China

Thomas Edward Ward Correspondence, 1926- 1955 Acc.# 02313 1.35 cubic feet, 3 boxes

Thomas E. Ward Sr. (1889-1969) was an executive for the Eastern & General Syndicate of London who negotiated with the countries of Bahrain, Saudi Arabia, Qatar and Kuwait to allow Western oil companies to explore for petroleum in their countries.

Collection consists of Ward's correspondence from 1926-1955 regarding the negotiations for oil exploration and drilling by Eastern & General Syndicate and Gulf Oil Corporation.

Search Terms: Gulf Oil Corporation, Eastern and General Syndicate, Petroleum Industry, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Kuwait

Keywords: Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Petroleum negotiations, Middle East

Richard S. Whitcomb Papers, 1950- 1981 Acc.# 11199 0.25 cubic feet, 1 box +2 envelope

Richard S. Whitcomb was an officer in the U.S. Army during the twentieth century. As a Major during World War II, Whitcomb served in Iceland (1941-1943) and was the commander of the U.S. Army's 11th Port Company in England and France (1943-1945). He was promoted to Brigadier General soon after World War II and served as the U.S. Army's port commander in Manila, Phillippines during the mid 1940s. Whitcomb was commander of the Korean Base Section during the Korean War (1950-1953) and led the relief and reconstruction effort after the Pusan (South Korea) Fire (1953-1954). He also served in Vietnam and Cambodia during the 1960s and 1970s and travelled in China during the 1970s and early 1980s. Richard S. Whitcomb passed away in 1982.

Collection contains photocopies of three 1981 letters written by Richard S. Whitcomb: a letter concerning his recollections of the British and American occupation of Iceland and Greenland during World War II; a letter describing his travels and military service in China, Korea, Vietnam, and Cambodia and his conservative political views; and a letter to his daughter Taejong Min regarding the issue of stress, in which he describes his service in the Phillippines. Collection also contains eight certificates of appreciation. A copy of Whitcomb's unpublished manuscript, "One War" (his memoirs about his service in Iceland and Europe during World War II) is in this collection as well.

Search Terms: Armed Forces, Officers, Korean War, China, Southeast Asia

Keywords: Certificates, Gratitude, Korean-Language Documents, Korean Artistry, Brigadier General, Vietnam, Cambodia

Grace Willard Papers, 1867- 2008 Acc.# 11742
8.38 cubic feet, 9 boxes

Grace Madden married Harold S. Willard on August 12, 1924. Harold Willard joined the University of Wyoming faculty as an instructor in Animal Husbandry in 1922. The Willards lived on the University of Wyoming Stock Farm from 1931-1953, when Harold Willard took leave from the university to accept an appointment with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in their Point 4 Program in Amman, Jordan. From 1959-1961 the Willards were in Afghanistan. Grace Willard taught math in the high school organized for American and other foreign students. She also taught English as a second language to Afghanis.

This collection contains correspondence from Grace Willard relating to life in Jordan and Afghanistan and to travels by the Willards all over the world. Also included are appointment calendars, a personal notebook, books from India and Australia, a high school year book, memoir of W. D. Willard (Harold S. Willard's father) about his family's life in Minnesota, a small manuscript by Mrs. Willard about life on the UW Stock Farm, numerous slides, and a book written by Grace Willard which was compiled by their son, James.

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Search Terms: Jordan, Afghanistan

Keywords: Travel, Americans abroad, agriculture, development, Jordan, Afghanistan

Supplemental/Related Collections

Isadore G. Alk Papers, 1941- 49 Acc.# 09918

1.0 cubic feet, 1 box

Isadore G. Alk was a Washington attorney and a chief counsel for the foreign funds control section of the U.S. Treasury Department. Alk was born in Green Bay, Wisconsin and earned his law degree from the University of Wisconsin. He joined the U.S. Treasury Department in 1943 and earned the U.S. Medal of Freedom for his work which concerned the Philippines and Japan. He was also a special legal assistant to the Thai government who assisted with Thailand's settlement of its seized gold and property claims against Japan. For his work, he was awarded Thailand's Order of the Crown and the Order of the White Elephant. Isadore Alk passed away on March 13, 1987.

The Isadore G. Alk collection concerns his work with the Thai government regarding its claim against Japan. It contains bound and unbound legal documents dealing with Thai gold and property seized by the Japanese during World War II. Documents include correspondence, reports, and legal statements between 1941 and 1949.

Search Terms: Thailand, Japan

Keywords: World War II Seizures, International Law, Property Law, Thailand

Austin App Papers, 1923- 1981 Acc.# 08817

71.5 cubic feet, 73 boxes

Austin Joseph App (1902-1984) taught English language and literature at Catholic University of America and the University of Scranton between 1929-1942. After serving in the Army in World War II, he continued to teach literature at Incarnate Word College and LaSalle College between 1944-1968, but became increasingly involved in revisionist history, anti-semitism, anti-communism, anti-integration and anti-pornography interests. He was director of Boniface Press beginning in 1948, president of the Federation of American Citizens of German Descent from 1960-1966, and chair of the Captive Nations Committee of Greater Philadelphia beginning in 1965.

Collection includes business and personal correspondence (1925-1981) including correspondence with revisionist historian Harry Elmer Barnes; research files chiefly related to political, historical and social issues including correspondence, notes, manuscripts, newspaper clippings and printed materials; manuscripts (1923-ca. 1980); speeches; financial records; biographical information; scrapbooks; photographs; and books and other printed materials, many in German, on topics related to his historical, racial and social interests.

Search Terms: Anti-Communist Movements, Zionism, German Americans, Germany, Israel, Racism, Antisemitism

Keywords: Catholicism, Anti-Semitism, Anti-Communism, German Americans, Anti-Nazism, German Rebuilding, German-Language Documents, Conservatives, Mexico, Marriage/Divorce, Israel, Palestine

Yvonne Beaudry Papers, 1945- 1993 Acc.# 09957

5.40 cubic feet, 7 boxes

Yvonne Angelino Beaudry was born in Clairmont, New Hampshire in 1908 and died in New York City on January 14, 1994. She graduated from the University of New Hampshire and Columbia University in Journalism. She worked in the medical history division of the War Department, 1945-1946, and then as a special researcher and writer on economic development and foreign aid for the U.S. Senate Appropriations Committee, 1947-1948. She assisted with an economic survey of Western Europe for the U.S. Senate, 1949-1950. She was a freelance journalist for most of her life with articles in the areas of economic development, human interest, religion, and travel. She was a member of the Overseas Press Club and the Silurians.

This collection concerns Yvonne Beaudry's career as a journalist. It contains original magazines, newspapers, and periodicals with her articles, such as "The American Society Legion of Honor", "Readers Digest", and "Catholic Digest". Story files contain notes and historical source materials. Beaudry wrote about areas she traveled in: France and Quebec primarily, but also the Western United States, South America, and China. Personalities such as Eva Gauthier, singer, and Jean Monnet, creator of the European Common Market, are featured in her articles. There are many other articles by her, in their original publications, on self-help and popular topics. Religious topics like the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls and a noted Jesuit priest in Nepal are also included. Biographical information, correspondence, some personal photographs, and ephemera are also found.

Search Terms: Women Journalists, Travel Writers, Freelance Journalism

Keywords: French-language Documents, Economic Survey of Western Europe, Foreign Aid Committee, Journalism, Overseas Press Club, Canada

Arthur King Bennett Papers, 1941- 2002 Acc.# 11706

8.12 cubic feet, 9 boxes

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Arthur King Bennett was a U.S. naval aviator who completed six tours during the Korean War and six tours during the Vietnam War. Bennett retired in 1975 with the rank of captain.

The collection contains a manuscript by Byron R. Winborn, titled "Sampan Commander"; certificates and other biographical material about Arthur Bennett; flight logs; a photo album, photographs, and aerial photographs; lectures notes by Bennett; and printed material.

Search Terms: Naval Aviation, Korean War, Vietnam War

Keywords: Navy, Korean War, Vietnam War, Pilot, Surveillance, Aerial Intelligence Photography

Allan Francis Bonnalie Papers, 1902- 1974 Acc.# 05859 31.27 cubic feet, 63 boxes

Bonnalie joined the U.S. Signal Corps in 1917 and served as a pilot with the British Royal Air Force during World War I. From 1922-1929 he was a mechanical engineer with Southern Pacific Railroad in San Francisco. He joined United Air Lines in 1930 as a pilot and from 1945-1952 he was general manager of United of Mexico, Lineas Aereas Mexicanas, S.A. (LAMSA). LAMSA was sold by United in 1953 and Bonnalie was director of United's flight training program in Denver, Colorado, until his retirement in 1958. In 1961 and 1962 he made several trips overseas for the U.S. Foreign Operations Administration (FOA) on aviation matters.

Collection contains materials relating to Bonnalie's career in aeronautics from 1902-1974. The collection includes a log book (1931-1934); correspondence (1921-1973); miscellaneous maps and charts; 8 scrapbooks (1912-1938); materials on Bonnalie's service in World War I (1918-1921); certificates and military orders; manuscripts of writings by Bonnalie; models of airplanes and other miscellaneous artifacts; and journals kept while traveling to Afghanistan, Bolivia and Yugoslavia for FOA (1961-1962). The collection also includes photographs, slides and glass plate negatives of airplanes, Bonnalie, his work with Southern Pacific, and a history of naval aviation (1902-1929); World War I and aeronautics posters; research materials on airways and travel (1930-1955); materials on United Air Lines and LAMSA (1947-1958); an index card file on specifications and features on airplanes and engines; and the manuscript for an unpublished autobiography entitled "A Lifetime in Aviation: The Autobiography of Allan F. Bonnalie" (ca. 1974). The collection also contains 3 16 mm films on LAMSA and Mexico; 3 16 mm and 1 35 mm films on flying and flight training; and 1 8 mm film of a ticker-tape parade in New York City after Charles Lindbergh's trans-atlantic flight (1927); and miscellaneous other materials.

Search Terms: United Air Lines, Lineas Areas Mexicanas, Transatlantic Flights, Aeronauts, Mexico, Yugoslavia, Afghanistan, Bolivia, Naval Aviation

Keywords: Aviation, Aviation Development, Yugoslavia, Afghanistan, Bolivia, Mexico, Spanish-Language Documents, China, Foreign Operations Administration, Promotional Films

Lyle H. Brothers Collection 1965- 1990 Acc.# 08287
27.5 cubic feet, 29 boxes

Lyle and Florence Brothers were nutrition counselors in Florida who collected right-wing literature and propaganda.

The Lyle Brothers collection contains a wide assortment of right-wing material. It contains nativist, fundamentalist, anti-semitic, racist, Libertarian and Republican literature and propaganda. It is largely focused against Jews, Communists, Liberals, the Federal Reserve, the National Association for Colored People, the United Nations, the Soviet Union, Communist China, and Latin American liberation movement. In even more generous terms if it opposed to income taxes, modern art, progressive education, sex education, drugs, flouridization of water, national health care, welfare for the poor, unions, government regulation of corporations and the media. The material supports a strong military, small businesses, corporate capitalism, the war on drugs, and the fundamentalist family and moral values. The John Birch Society, Aryan Nations and Don Bell materials are fairly representative.

Search Terms: Right-Wing Extremists, Neo-Nazism, Racism, Propaganda, Anti-Communist

Keywords: US South, Rightwing Propaganda, Far Right, Conspiracy, Anti-Communism, Racism, Anti-Semitism, Anti-Liberalism, Anti-China, Anti-UN, Aryan Nations, John Birch Society, Fundamentalism

Jay Bushinsky Papers, 1966- 2001 Acc.# 11230
7.4 cubic feet, 27 boxes

Jay Bushinsky was a journalist. He received an MS from Columbia University in 1963. He worked as a foreign news correspondent for United States newspapers. He was based in Israel from 1966-2005. He was the Middle East Bureau Chief for Washington Broadcating Company (1966-1977) and Infinity Broadcasting Company (1969-1977). He was CNN's first Jerusalem Bureau Chief (1980-1985).

The Jay Bushinsky papers contain files about his articles for United States and Australian newspapers. These files contain correspondence, telexes and drafts of radio broadcasts that he made for United States newspapers regarding wars in the Middle East, armed conflicts between Israel and Palestinians, the Gulf War, Wars in Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, and in the Balkans (1966-2001); files which contain notes and research for his articles (1966-2001); correspondence and scripts for INN radio broadcasts (1985-1986). There are also newspaper clippings of his articles. Some the newspapers that he wrote for are : "The Christian Science Monitor" (1971-1977), "Chicago SunTimes" (1969-1987), "Chicago Daily News" (1966-1974), "Atlanta Constitution" (1979), and "Miami Herald" (1967-1977). Radio stations that carried his broadcasts include KYN, WBC, WMAQ, and KFWB.

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Search Terms: Foreign Correspondents, Iran-Iraq War, Israel-Arab War, Lebanon, Refugees

Keywords: Israel, Press, Foreign Correspondent, Middle East, Palestinians, Press Conferences, Broadcast Transcripts, News Updates, Arabic-Language Newspapers

Joseph Castro Papers, 1937- 1970 Acc.# 09081 4.92 cubic feet, 5 boxes

Castro (1920-) enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1937 and retired with the rank of major in 1969. He served in World War II and the Korean and Vietnam wars. Castro was also stationed in North China from 1945-1946 and in Okinawa from 1961-1962.

Collection contains military records (1937-1970); memorabilia from his military career including correspondence, military insignia patches, programs, newspaper clippings, maps, and other materials; photograph albums; printed materials; and miscellaneous other materials.

Search Terms: Vietnam War, China, Korean War, Okinawa

Keywords: Military history, US Marines, US Navy, Aircraft, Vietnam, Korea, China, Japan, Foreign Currency, Vietnamese-Language Documents, Plane Wreckage

William B. Dickinson Papers, 1904- 1982 Acc.# 07994 7 cubic feet, 14 boxes

William Boyd Dickinson Jr. was born May 18, 1908 in Kansas City, Missouri. He graduated from the University of Kansas in 1929. After working for the Kansas City Star, he went to the United Press as a reporter from 1930-1948. While with UPI he served as a war correspondent in London from 1941-1944 and in Australia and Japan from 1944-1947. He married Joan Younger in 1949, and the two relocated to Philadelphia where he joined the Philadelphia Bulletin as an editor -a position he would hold until his retirement in 1973. He continued to write and report until his death in 1978.

The collection contains materials relating to William B. Dickinson's career as a journalist. Material includes scrapbooks (1930s-1970s); photographs of Dickinson in Australia, the Soviet Union, and China (1939-1972); news clippings about World War II; correspondence of both personal and professional matters; subject files on various topics including his trips to China and the Soviet Union and his work with the Philadelphia Bulletin; and personal and biographical material.

Search Terms: Journalism, Newspapers, China, London, Soviet Union

Keywords: Photographs, Scrapbooks, Nixon in China, China, USSR

Arthur Goldschmidt Papers, 1943- 1988 Acc.# 07491

13.7 cubic feet, 31 boxes

Goldschmidt (1910-) spent his career in service with the United States government and international organizations. He worked for various federal agencies from 1933 to 1950, including the Federal Emergency Relief Administration (1933-1936) and the Department of the Interior (1940-1950). Goldschmidt was director of technical assistance operations with the United Nations (1950-1967) and was the U.S. representative to the UN Social and Economic Council (1967-1969). He continued working with the UN as a consultant to international and non-governmental organizations until his retirement in 1980.

Collection contains correspondence, reports, minutes, conference materials and other items related to work with the UN and other organizations; correspondence, reports, printed materials and an audiotape related to the Mekong River Basin project and reconstruction projects in Southeast Asia; and personal correspondence and memorabilia. Also contains Goldschmidt's correspondence with Sir Julian Huxley, reprints of Huxley articles, an audiotape by Goldschmidt on Huxley, and materials relating to a Huxley memorial.

Search Terms: Julian Huxley, United Nations, World Tourism Organization, Lower Mekong River Project, International Agencies

Keywords: Foreign Development, Foreign Aid, United Nations, Lower Mekong River Project, Economic Council

Robert F. Herdman Papers, 1905- 1972 Acc.# 05380

18.92 cubic feet, 19 boxes

Robert F. Herdman (1890-1973), an engineer, was a native of Pueblo, Colorado and attended Colorado A&M College with extension studies at the University of Colorado and the University of Wisconsin. He served in the Army during World Wars I & II; during which time he worked as a civilian engineer with the Army Corps of Engineers. His career in engineering spanned many different areas, as he spent time working for the Miami Conservancy District (Ohio), the Illinois Central Railroad Terminal Improvement Project, and Byllesby Engineering and Management Corporation. He worked for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation from 1913-1923 and 1933-1954, where he was in charge of construction of the Bartlett Dam in Arizona and the Yellowtail Dam in Montana from

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

1936-1938. Herdman also went to Korea in 1950 to study the country's hydroelectric potential and served as project engineer for the Litani River Project in Lebanon from 1952-1954. Herdman retired from the Bureau of Reclamation in 1954 and worked as an engineering consultant with International Engineering Company, Inc. and Chas. T. Main, Inc.

Collection contains materials relating to Herdman's career as an engineer including correspondence files containing reports, plans and newspaper clippings, regarding the Litani River Project in Lebanon and his trip to Korea (1950-1954); materials from his time working as an engineer for the Army; speeches by Herdman on water reclamation and dam construction (1945-1950); maps of Korea (1950); a diary of his trip in Korea (1950); subject files on dam designs, Yellowtail Dam, the Litani River Project and Korea (1927-1957); files from his consulting work; reports by Herdman on water reclamation, Yellowtail Dam, the Litani River Project and hydroelectric power in Korea (1942-1960); photographs of Yellowtail Dam (1966) and Bartlett Dam during construction (1937-1939); and manuscripts by Herdman, "The Development of the Reclamation Service" and "History of Yellowstone National Park."

Search Terms: US Reclamation Service, Water Reuse, Water Resources Development, Lebanon

Keywords: Lebanon, French-Language Documents, Arabic-Language Documents, Litani Project, Water Resource Development, Bureau of Reclamation

Harold C. Hinton Papers, 1960- 1992 Acc.# 11478 43.54 cubic feet, 44 boxes

Harold C. Hinton was Assistant Professor of History at Georgetown University from 1950-1957; Training Officer for the Foreign Service Institute, Department of State from 1957-1960; Associate Professor of History, Trinity College from 1960-1964. Then Associate Professor Political Science and International Affairs from 1964-1967, and from 1967-1992 he was professor of Political Science and International Affairs at the George Washington University. He was a founder of the post-war expansion of American China studies. His fields included Chinese politics, Chinese foreign policy, and China's relations with America and its East Asian neighbors.

The collection contains a notebook of biographical information about Harold C. Hinton and his library, files relating to his Asian studies, research files, related printed material and a scrapbook.

Search Terms: China, Foreign Relations, China—Politics and Government

Keywords: China, Chinese Politics, American Professors, Lecture Notes/Research

Charles F. Kiefer Papers, 1940- 1976 Acc.# 09016
5 cubic feet, 5 boxes

Charles F. Kiefer (1911-1979) was an economist with the U.S. Department of Agriculture from 1934-1966. From 1966-1970 he was executive director of the Civil Aeronautics Board. Kiefer also worked as a management consultant for the Ford Foundation to the government of India from 1964-1965, the government of Thailand from 1973-1974 and for the World Bank to the government of Kenya from 1972-1973.

Collection contains miscellaneous biographical information (1951-1966); professional correspondence (1939-1965); subject files regarding wool growing, agricultural economics, the U.S.D.A. and the Civil Aeronautics Board (1940-1976); speeches on the U.S.D.A. and the Civil Aeronautics Board (1958-1968); and miscellaneous papers relating to his consulting work in India, Thailand and Turkey (1963-1974).

Search Terms: Agriculture, Wool Industry, India, Thailand, Turkey

Keywords: Agriculture, Wool, India, Thailand, Turkey, Agricultural Development

Donald Kirk Papers, 1965- 1984 Acc.# 09097
8 cubic feet, 8 boxes

Journalist in Southeast Asia

Mainly subject files on the Vietnam War and Asian affairs for this journalist who covered South-east Asia for the Chicago "Tribune" from 1965-1974. There is also some correspondence, memorabilia and the manuscript for the book "Tell It to the Dead."

Search Terms: Journalism, Southeast Asia, Vietnam War

Keywords: Journalism, Vietnam War, Southeast Asia, Taiwan, Japan, China

Truman H. Kuhn Papers, 1918- 1989 Acc.# 00799
4.95 cubic feet, 11 boxes

Truman H. Kuhn spent most of his professional life as a professor of geological engineering at the Colorado School of Mines in Golden, Colorado. He was born in 1908 in Glendora, California, and he earned his Ph.D. from the University of Arizona in 1940. From 1930-1937 he was an engineer for the Los Angeles Flood Control District. He also worked for the Magma Copper Company, the Eagle-Picher Mining and Smelting Company, and the Arizona Molybdenum Corporation. In 1942, he became an assistant professor of geology at the Colorado School of Mines. He was promoted to Faculty Dean and was Vice President for Academic Affairs. Much of his interest focused on the educative process including standards and accreditation. He also was a consultant to several universities around the world that were establishing geology programs. His geology focus included mining geology and applied geology. He wrote many articles and published 16 works on these subjects. He died in 1988.

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

The Truman H. Kuhn papers include biographical material, administrative files (many from foreign university projects), geology articles, books, newspaper clippings, correspondence, maps, notes, mining reports, speeches, and subject files. The material traces his academic career, both as a student and a professor, and his professional career including his work at the Los Angeles County Flood Control District, and his consulting work for foreign universities in Saudi Arabia, Turkey, and Indonesia.

Search Terms: Geology, Mining Corporations

Keywords: Turkey, Zambia, Saudi Arabia, Indonesia, Mining, Petroleum, Turkish-Language Documents, Geological Maps, Consultants, Photographs

Stan Lee Papers, 1942- 2001 Acc.# 08302 42.8 cubic feet, 91 boxes

Stan Lee is most recognized as the creator of the popular comic book hero Spider-Man. In 1939, Lee joined Timely Comics Group. His early work included writing the Captain America comic strips. In 1961, these comics began to be released as Marvel Comics. In 1972, Lee became the publisher of Marvel Comics Group, and Marvel grew to be the leading producer of comic books in the world. In 1981, Lee moved from New York City to Los Angeles to develop Marvel's television and motion-picture concepts. He also helped form Stan Lee Media, an Internet site that introduced comics to the Web. Stan Lee was born Stanley M. Lieber on December 28, 1922, in New York City. He served with the United States Army as a playwright during World War II. He married Joan Boocock in 1947.

The Stan Lee Papers include manuscripts and working drafts of many Marvel Comics productions including the Spider-Man daily comic strips and Vera Valiant as well as a host of other comic book lines such as the Silver Surfer, the X-Men, Captain America, the Tomorrow Chronicles, the Fantastic Four and the Incredible Hulk. Also included is fan mail and correspondence. Much of the correspondence is between Lee and business associates regarding the management and operation of Marvel Comics Group and its production of comic books and other publications. There are articles about Stan Lee and Marvel Comics Group, and there are subject and photograph files that relate to Stan Lee, Marvel Comics Group and the comics industry. Also included are audio-visual materials including audiotapes and videotapes of Stan Lee interviews and Stan Lee events such as presentations and autograph sessions. There is a small amount of material related to Lee's Internet site, Stan Lee Media.

Search Term: Marvel Comics Group, Spider-Man, Comic Books

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Keywords: American Pop Culture, Comic Books, Cold War, Literary History

John T. Lindsay Papers, 1961- 1988 Acc.# 09955 6 cubic feet, 6 boxes

John T. Lindsay was born in 1916 and worked for "Newsweek" as a journalist from 1961-1988. He was a political correspondent from the early 1960s through 1975, covering Watergate, the Kennedys, and many of the major political figures in American politics of this period, including Nixon in exile.

The John T. Lindsay papers contain the unpublished basic filed reports, in note form, composed by John Lindsay for "Newsweek" between 1966 and the end of his career. The reports include information on many of the principal political figures in American politics for two decades from the 1960s through the 1980s, including the Kennedys, Lyndon B. Johnson, and Richard Nixon

Search Terms: Richard Nixon, Watergate, John F. Kennedy

Keywords: Press, journalism, American politicians, Kennedys, Nixon, Carter, Reagan, Newsweek

Nancy Lynn Schwartz Papers, 1937- 2006 Acc.# 07948 23.85 cubic feet, 45 boxes

Schwartz was a television writer who wrote for the television mini-series "Wheels" and other programs. Before her death in 1978, Schwartz was working on a history of the Screen Writers' Guild entitled "The Hollywood Writers' Wars." The work was completed by her mother, Sheila Schwartz, in 1982.

The collection contains screenplays and manuscripts by Nancy Lynn Schwartz. Also included are research materials related to Schwartz's book "The Hollywood Writers' Wars," about the Screen Writers' Guild, the Hollywood Ten, and the screenwriters blacklisted for alleged Communist sympathies in the McCarthy era, including several audio cassettes of interviews with blacklisted Hollywood writers. Also included in the collection are publicity materials, correspondence, and biographical information related to her personal life and professional career.

Search Terms: Screen Writers' Guild, Communism and Motion Pictures, Blacklisting

Keywords: Hollywood 10, Communism, Blacklist, Screen Writers' Guild, McCarthyism

Elizabeth Peer Papers, 1936- 1984 Acc.# 08932

11.92 cubic feet, 12 boxes

Elizabeth Clow Peer (1936-1984) worked as a reporter for "Newsweek" magazine from 1958-1984. She was the magazine's first woman foreign correspondent while in Paris from 1964-1969 and later its first woman foreign bureau chief while also in Paris from 1976-1978. Peer served as senior writer from 1978-1984.

Collection contains materials relating to Peer's work as a journalist including personal and professional correspondence, mostly while in Paris (1953-1984); diaries (1952-1956); research files used for writing articles for "Newsweek" (1964-1984); miscellaneous photographs of Paris, Peer and her father, Dr. Lyndon A. Peer (1964-1981); 2 audio cassette tapes of an interview with Brooke Shields in 1980 and 1 audio cassette tape of an interview with Armand Hammer in 1983; 2 scrapbooks (1964-1968); 1 photograph album (1978); and biographical information (1936-1984) on her father and her mother, Ruth Banghart Peer.

Search Terms: Newsweek, Journalism, Foreign Correspondents, France

Keywords: Foreign Correspondents, Women, Newsweek, Journalism, Press, France, Paris, French Culture/Politics/Economy, Europe and Communism, French-Language Documents

Richard Harlakenden Sanger Papers, 1914- 1976 Acc.# 0808016.55 cubic feet, 37 boxes

Sanger (1905-1979) worked as a reporter in the Soviet Union from 1933-1934 before serving with the U.S. Board of Economic Warfare in north Africa from 1940-1941. From 1944-1962 he was a foreign service officer with the U.S. Department of State in Lebanon, Jordan, Saudi Arabia and Africa. Sanger served as a lecturer and consultant with the U.S. Army on counterinsurgency from 1963-1971.

Collection contains personal and professional correspondence (1935-1976); speeches (1934-1964); subject files on Africa, Saudi Arabia, communism and counterinsurgency; diaries of a trip to Europe (1914) and Yemen and Saudi Arabia (1943-1946); manuscripts for the books "Insurgent Era" and "Where the Jordan Flows"; 4 reel-to-reel audio tapes of speeches on counterinsurgency (1964-1974); 1 scrapbook; and a robe and harem gown from Saudi Arabia.

Search Terms: Diplomatic and Consular Services, Communism, Counterinsurgency, Africa, Europe, Saudi Arabia

Keywords: Diaries, Scrapbooks, Audiotapes, Saudi Arabian Royal Clothing/Artifacts, Counterinsurgency, US Government Documents, Middle East

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

Ronald Steinman Papers, 1966- 1968 Acc.# 05744
.25 cubic feet, 1 box

Bureau Chief for NBC News in Saigon from 1966- 68

Journals containing brief accounts of news stories by this journalist who was Bureau Chief for NBC News in Saigon, Vietnam from 1966-1968.

Search Terms: NBC News, Journalism, Vietnam War

Keywords: Journalism, Bureau Chief, Saigon, Vietnam War, Log Books

Thomas F. Stroock Papers, 1948- 2008 Acc.# 10356
41.35 cubic feet, 95 boxes

Thomas F. Stroock, Wyoming State Senator, U.S. Ambassador to Guatemala, and businessman was born in 1925. A graduate of Yale University, he moved to Casper, Wyoming in 1948 and worked for Stanolind Oil Company. In 1952, he founded Stroock Leasing Corporation, an oil and gas properties firm. Stroock was first elected Wyoming State Senator from Natrona County in 1966 and served sixteen years. From 1989 to 1992, Stroock served as U.S. Ambassador to Guatemala. Appointed by President George H.W. Bush, he held this position during a period in which Guatemala was making a transition to democracy and was an advocate for human rights and social justice in this Central American country. Stroock returned to Wyoming in 1992 and served as Chairman of the Wyoming Health Reform Commission and on the Wyoming Medical Center's Board of Directors.

Collection contains correspondence and other miscellaneous materials pertaining to his political career and his term as U.S. Ambassador to Guatemala. They are primary documents of his activities in the Wyoming State Senate, the Republican Party, and the U.S. Embassy in Guatemala, including State Senate files, U.S. Congressional Campaign files, correspondence from his term as State Chairman of the Wyoming Republican Party, materials regarding his service as U.S. Ambassador to Guatemala, materials regarding his service on the Wyoming Health Reform Commission, materials from his service on the Wyoming Medical Center's Board of Directors, and materials documenting his involvement with the Wyoming State Planning Grant Task Force, which concerned itself with health care for the uninsured. There are also scrapbooks which document Stroock's life from 1948 to 2004. Also included are audio tapes of oral histories with Thomas Stroock.

Search Terms: Guatemala, Wyoming

Keywords: Guatemala, Latin America, Ambassador, Communism, NAFTA

Richard Tregaskis Papers, 1880- 2011 Acc.# 0634662.49 ft3, 92 boxes

Richard Tregaskis, born in New Jersey in 1916, was a war correspondent and author. Prevented by bad eyesight from enlisting in the armed forces during World War II, he covered both the Pacific and European theaters as a correspondent and was badly wounded in Italy. He chronicled his wartime experiences in many books, including "Guadalcanal Diary" (1943) and "Invasion Diary" (1944). The bulk of his career was spent reporting on events in Asia and Oceania. Tregaskis covered nine wars, including the Chinese Civil War, Korean, and Vietnam War. He also wrote poetry, novels, biographies, magazine articles, and screenplays for motion pictures and television. Tregaskis drowned near Honolulu in 1973.

Collection contains published and draft versions of Tregaskis's writings, including books, articles, and scripts. Also present is research material, including both files and numerous diaries kept by Tregaskis as he covered WWII, Vietnam, Korea, and various world travels to many foreign countries. The collection also contains both personal and professional correspondence and files. Photographs depicting Tregaskis's experience in Vietnam; WWII, China, and Korea; his world travels; and personal life are also contained in the collection. Also present are audio and visual materials containing Tregaskis interviews and research, speeches, and third-party productions featuring either Tregaskis or his works.

Search Terms: War Correspondents, China, Korean War, Vietnam War, Islands of the Pacific

Keywords: China, Vietnam, Korea, Taiwan, Asia, Diaries, Correspondents, interviews

Hamilton Vreeland Papers, 1917- 1962 Acc.# 086374 cubic feet, 4 boxes

Vreeland (1892-1969), a lawyer and educator, worked for several New York law firms before beginning a teaching career at institutions including Catholic, Yale, Fordham, American and New York Universities. He was a specialist in international law and wrote and lectured on international affairs.

Collection contains research files and manuscripts on Hugo Grotius, Russian communism, and international law.

Search Terms: International Law, Communism, Soviet Union

Keywords: International law, academia, lectures, publishing, communism, USSR, manuscripts

Subject Guide to International Perspectives of the Cold War

William F. Wallace Papers, ca.1940- ca.1979 Acc.# 07874

4.9 cubic feet, 11 boxes

William F. Wallace Jr. worked for Pan American World Airways from 1936-1979. Most of his career was with Pan Am's Technical Assistance Program, which contracted with foreign governments and international agencies to develop international aviation programs.

Collection contains files of correspondence, reports, memorandums, budgets, telegrams, notes, lists, and maps related to aviation development in countries including Vietnam, Zaire, Afghanistan, Morocco, Liberia, Guinea, Nepal, and Colombia.

Search Terms: Pan American, Commercial Aeronautics, Vietnam, Afghanistan, Africa, Colombia

Keywords: PanAM, Commercial Air Travel, Vietnam, Middle East, Africa, Venezuela, Spanish-Language Documents

Roger Neville Williams Papers, 1947- 2009 Acc.# 07473

19 cubic feet, 41 boxes

Roger Neville Williams was an American journalist and writer. In early 1968 Williams worked as a free lance journalist in Vietnam for several months. In the spring of 1968 Williams refused to be drafted into the US military, and consequently left America. While living in exile, Williams worked with various Vietnam War resistance organizations, and published a book on the American draft resisters in Canada. After returning to America, Williams continued his work as a journalist.

The Roger Neville Williams papers contain the writings and research files of Roger Neville Williams. The bulk of the materials are related to the Vietnam War and Vietnam War resistance movements. A few of the other subjects covered in the collection are community based media, international marketing of baby formula, and alternative energy development. Finally, the collection also contains a large number of printed materials relating to the Vietnam War resistance movements, many of which had limited initial printings.

Search Terms: Vietnam War, Draft Resistance, Journalism

Keywords: Draft Dodgers, resistance movements, Vietnam War, anti-war propaganda, amnesty, counter-cultures

Thomas E. Williams Papers, 1940- 1985 Acc.# 10114

.7 cubic feet, 2 boxes

Colonel Thomas E. Williams had a Marine Corps career that stretched from 1941-1962.

He was in the Pacific during World War II, and then he was assigned to Europe. He assumed his first major Cold War command of the Camp Matthews weapons training regiment in 1956. He was posted to China, Europe, and the Army War College. He was involved in intelligence and worked with the CIA.

The Thomas E. Williams collection contains four autobiographical cassette tapes regarding his career (1985). There are also orders, biographical information, a U.S. War College paper, entitled "Critique of Mao's 'On Protracted War'" (1959), and aerial reconnaissance photographs. Some military handbooks are also included.

Search Terms: United States Marine Corps, Military Intelligence, Central Intelligence Agency, Cold War Personal Narratives

Keywords: China, Europe, Army War College, CIA, Mao, aerial reconnaissance photographs

Carl H. Zeiss Papers, 1932- 1964 Acc.# 10107
2.10 cubic feet, 2 boxes/ 1 expandable envelope

Carl H. Zeiss was born in Chicago and was a strong supporter of Cold War conservative positions, in particular the fight against the repeal of the Connolly Amendment/Reservation to the original United Nations Charter in 1946. The amendment upheld the principle of the sovereign nation. Zeiss was active in the "Defenders of American Liberties" along with John F. Schlafly Jr.

Carl H. Zeiss collection contains correspondence, 1956-1964, over the controversy of the repeal of the Connolly Amendment to the original United Nations Charter, made in 1946. Letters to many notable persons such as Jacob Javits and J. William Fulbright are included as well as individuals organized into the "Defenders of American Liberties". Another series is the unrelated 1932 election campaign of Zeiss for U.S. Congress which contains primary materials related to his election efforts.

Search Terms: William Fulbright, International Court of Justice, Defenders of American Liberties

Keywords: Connolly Amendment, World Court, International Court of Justice, USA, Nixon, Anti-Communism, Citizen's Councils