“Mya Fire” in the Arctic Tundra: transferring the traditional knowledge to children in reindeer herding communities. Northern Russia.

Ethnographic film and discussion

Weekdays, April 5th, 12 noon, AN 150

Dietary Expansion and Changes in Landscape Use from the Middle Paleolithic to Mesolithic in Southern Greece

Weekdays, April 12, 2017, 3 p.m.

“Lives among Waters” Ethnographic film and discussion

Discussant: Frieda Knoblauch, American Studies and WIHR

Co-sponsored by Wyoming Institute for Humanities Research (WIHR), the Haub School, and Global and Area Studies

Thursday, April 13, 2017, 3 p.m. ANTH 150

Ivor Janković, Institute for Anthropological Research, Zagreb

Mario Novak, Institute for Anthropological Research, Zagreb

Symposium on Croatian Archaeology

Weekdays, April 26th, 4pm, ANTH 150

Bodies as Battlefields: Culturally Sanctioned and Gendered Forms of Violence in Ancient America

Thursday, April 27th, 4:10pm, Business Auditorium

Inscribed on the Body, Written in the Bones: Contextualizing Violence in the Past, Preventing Violence in the Future

For more information, please contact the Department of Anthropology at 307-766-5136 or anthro@uwyo.edu