

SUMMER TEACHING INSTITUTE

June 25-27, 2019 and June 23-25, 2020

General Info:

The 2019 Summer Teaching Institute is a 3 Day in-person intensive that will kick off an extended project, completed in 2020.

Topics will include educational leadership, making meaning with art, discovering and honing your teaching style, reflective practices, and deep dive into the processes of teaching and learning, or action research.

Interested parties must commit to the full project that consists of the following:

- 3 in-person days Summer 2019
- 15 hrs Distance Learning Fall 2019
- 15 hrs Distance Learning Spring 2020
- 3 in-person days Summer 2020

Locations: University of Wyoming, Laramie, WY, and your educational setting

Credit Available: 6 total credits possible, either PTSB certification or UW Continuing Education (UW credits are an additional $50/credit hour and payable on site.)

Stipends: Awarded to each participant to help offset the cost of supplies, transportation, or housing.

$150 paid at completion of Summer 2019 and $150 paid at completion of the full program in 2020.

Participation is limited to 15 individuals.

Pictured: Participants from the 2017 Summer Teaching Institute. (UW Art Museum)

2019 Institute will include hands-on strategies to engage learners of all ages and audiences in interdisciplinary, multi-modal approaches to improve:

- Curriculum
- Program development and assessment
- Critical and creative thinking skills
- Civic engagement
- Visual literacy
- Relationship building and networking amongst peers

Early Bird Registration: Now - March 31, 2019, $50/person paid to UW Art Museum (plus optional UW graduate/continuing ed credits)

Extended Registration: April 1 - June 1, 2019, $75/person paid to UW (plus optional UW graduate/continuing ed credits)

REGISTER HERE

<https://artmuseum.catalog.instructure.com/courses/uwamsummerteachinginstitute19-20>

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Contact Katie Christensen, Curator of Education & Statewide Engagement, katie.christensen@uwyo.edu or 307.766.3496.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING
ART MUSEUM

Centennial Complex • 2111 E. Willett Drive • Laramie, WY
(307) 766-6622

Hours: Monday - Saturday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.,
Thursday until 7p.m., Closed Sunday & Monday

www.uwyo.edu/artmuseum