Accessing and Using Your Degree Evaluation

Log in to your student account in WyoRecords. Explorer is the recommended browser.

Confirm your program of study. Your degree evaluation will not be correct unless this information is correct. If correct, click on Student Records. If not correct, work with your advisor to update your records.

Click on Degree Evaluation. Be sure to enable pop-ups.

The first view of the degree evaluation begins to tell you some important information.

- Your advisor is listed, and can be emailed by clicking on the name.
- The top section is a summary of your requirements; pay careful attention to the 120 credits required to graduate. As you progress through your studies, you'll want to be sure to complete the 120 in the timeframe you anticipate to complete your degree. The credits applied number tells you how close you are to achieving the 120 total.

✅ Anticipated Graduation Date Form	Graduation Semester		Spring 2018

All students must declare their intent to graduate in writing to the Office of the Registrar and pay the diploma fee of $25 for each degree. Even if this requirement is showing complete, you may still need to submit an Anticipated Graduation Date form under the following conditions: 1. You have declared a second degree and have only submitted one form. 2. You have paid your graduation fee, but have not submitted an AGD form; 3. You have rented commencement regalia or completed the commencement survey but have not submitted an AGD form; or 4. You were up for graduation but did not graduate that semester. Any of these scenarios will require an updated AGD form. Check your 'Anticipated Graduation Date Information' on WyoWeb for more details.

Scrolling down, you will see the requirements for the major and for the college core. Note that clicking on the class link will enable a pop-up screen that will provide a course description, prerequisites needed, and schedule planning features.
Also notice that any courses you've taken, or in which you're currently enrolled, will populate into the degree evaluation.

✅ 60 Credits at any level outside your major

The next section shows the Upper Division requirement, which populates with any courses you take in your studies that are 3000-level or higher. There are 42 upper division credits required, and the degree evaluation will track and add them up for you.

The remainder of the degree evaluation shows the university requirements (gen eds), also referred to as the University Studies Program – or USPs. They may be listed individually, or as in the case of our test student, Joe Cowboy, they may be shown as partially met through previous completion of an approved associate's degree.

Upper Division Requirement

Unmet conditions for this set of requirements:

You still need 32 more credits.

Residency Requirement - A minimum of 30 upper division credits must be taken from UW. You currently have 10, UW credits, you still need at least 20 more credits from UW.

You currently have 10 out of 42 credits in upper division coursework.
