

SENATE RESOLUTION #1677

Title: Fees for Students in Off-Campus Study

Date: February 26, 1991

Author: Senator Hesco

Sponsors: Senators Baunach, Coffelt and Hesco

1. WHEREAS, all full-time students at the University of Wyoming must pay
2. fees in addition to tuition;
3. WHEREAS, these fees provide or support services for students;
4. WHEREAS, these services are generally located on, or centered around
5. the campus in Laramie;
6. WHEREAS, many students spend a semester or more in off-campus study as
7. full-time students;
8. WHEREAS, these students are required to pay fees in addition to
9. tuition for the semester(s) and;
10. WHEREAS, most of these students are not able to take advantage of
11. the services these fees support or provide during their time off
12. campus.
13. THEREFORE, be it resolved by the student senate of the Associated
14. Students of the University of Wyoming that it recommend to the
15. Board of Trustees that any student spending a semester in off-
16. campus study as a full-time student be exempted from paying fees
17. for that semester. Exempt from this new policy will be the $2.50
18. fee for student loans and any special fees for classes in which
19. they are enrolled. These students should also be given the option
20. of paying specific fees for any service they would be able to use.
