Director of Finance

- Over the past week, the Financial Wellness Committee put on “Financial Wellness Savviness.” This event had finance Professor Suman Banerjee come in and speak about general financial wellness. It went well, except I was disappointed in the amount of attendance. In the future, we will need to advertise farther in advance. I also spoke with the committee about November’s event, which will be UniWyo coming into speak about credit scores. This event will most likely be on November 16th around noon. Also, I will be working on researching about a possible FinanceEDU for students to take in their first year at UW. One such program is called Transit from Everfi. I will be looking into this more in the future.

Director of RSO relations

- This past week I’ve been going about business and helping RSOs as usual, however I have decided to change up my weekly reports to you all in two ways. 1) Include weekly, ASUW funded events in it. 2) Posting the current amount of Funding Board money allocated to RSOs. I want to reiterate that this is not the spent amount- just the amount we awarded so far in fiscal year 2017 (which sometimes doesn’t get used up, and rolls back into the pot). My intent behind this is to put the numbers in perspective when RSOs approach senate and be as transparent to senators as I can be. If you have any questions, or want to look over any of my spreadsheets to understand- please don’t hesitate to reach out! **Please make sure you are reading the executive reports if you are looking for this information of mine, thank you!****
- There is just one event this week that was funded for ASUW:
  - 10/29/2016: The Wyoming Honors Organization is hosting a Halloween Party with the intent to limit alcohol consumption and be social during Halloween. There will be lots going on there like Jimmy Johns, desserts, and a costume contest (with prizes!). This event will be held in the Honors House from 6-10pm.
- Funding Board Account (as of 10/27/2016):
- Allocated: $52,562.91
- Remaining: $83,437.09

Director of Marketing

- This week was a short week for me because I was in Indiana from Wednesday to Friday. But, despite that, I received money for a social media marketing tool that will streamline social media publishing so I will be able to publish on all social media outlets at once and can schedule all social media channels in order to reach our followers more effectively! I am also working through the digital signage training, and I apologize it has taken me this long to get this underway. I also went around and took pictures at the UCC and the Wellness Center for the end of Mental Health month for Sources of Strength!

Director of Governmental Affairs

- Governors Dinner is December 6th, at 6 PM. I will get Authorized Absences for anyone who needs them.
- I have spent this week working on the Judicial Council Archives, organizing and prepping for digitizing.
- I have put in for WASC Authorized Absences, check your email as they should have arrived.
- Common Read initiative, hoping to start some campus conversations here, perhaps mental health or sexual assault.

Director of Programming

- Last week I was really busy trying to finalize the Strategic Partners legislation and make sure that the programs were comfortable with them. I also met with CPH to discuss their strategic plan that they are rolling out this semester. ASTEC Ad-Hoc Committee started off really well and we are working on developing a mission statement within the next few weeks. I also have been brainstorming ways to restructure programs to ensure stability and trying to find ways to restart some programs that are struggling.

Director of Diversity

Projects/Goals for this week:

-Chief Diversity Officer inquiry: I am planning on attending the Committee on Women and People of Color (CoWPoC) meeting with President Nichols this upcoming week to specifically gather information on if I will be made the undergraduate representative on the search committee for the CDO position.

-MLK Days of Dialogue: My schedule is set for these meetings and I am actively receiving minutes and participating in the subcommittee work, in this case, brainstorming student members to participate in the rally as well as of speakers for the supper. Additionally, my duties fall into the outreach for student organizations to help with sign making workshops for the march.

Steps to complete these goals/people to contact:

-MLK Days of Dialogue: For the march specifically, I will be contacting the core group of multicultural RSOs that hold themselves to standards of social justice and activism to make some signs and be part of the initial kickoff process for MLKDOD

-Institutional Diversity Work- Aside from CoWPoC, I have direct connections to the moderators of the listening sessions for the Strategic Planning Committee, Drs. David Messenger and Cecilia Aragon who I have great working relationships with and can provide a more facilitative, direct voice from students to the upper echelons of the administration.
