Section 5. Absenteeism

A. An absence from a weekly meeting of ASUW Freshmen Senate will count as one (1) absence.
B. An absence from an ASUW committee meeting will count as one-half (1/2) absence.
C. An absence from a Freshman Senate committee meeting will count as one-half (1/2) absence.
D. Absences for academic reasons can be excused by the Advisor and Secretary prior to the Tuesday of the meeting in question.
E. Any Senator with three (3) absences in a given semester shall appear before the Steering Committee of the Freshman Senate to determine whether he/she is able to continue serving and what remedial actions, if any, should be taken. In such a case, the Steering Committee must make either a recommendation of remedial action to the Freshman Senate.
   1. The chair of the Steering Committee shall notify the Senator in question regarding the Steering Committee’s decision immediately following the Steering Committee meeting.
   2. The Steering Committee shall have the power to bring impeachment charges should the Committee find such action necessary and appropriate under the circumstances.
   3. No senator shall be removed from the Freshman Senate for absences except through the impeachment process.

Section 7. Ex-Officio Members

A. All University organizations seeking an ex-officio position on the Freshman Senate must have that position approved by the Procedures Committee and further approved by the Freshman Senate by a two-thirds (2/3) majority.
   1. Organizations seeking an ex-officio position must exhibit all of the following qualifications:
      a. The organization must strongly impact first-year students.
b. The organization must provide a diverse array of co-curricular activities including cultural, international, athletic, and/or student life programs.

d. The organization must be a University Recognized Student Organization, but special exemptions may be granted for the representative bodies of University faculty and staff.

e. The organization must demonstrate inadequate representation by the existing ex-officio members.

f. Any organization that has lost its ex-officio position on the Freshman Senate will enter a period of probation and may not reapply for said position until a period of one semester has passed. Upon reapplication, the organization must provide a detailed account of activities conducted during this period of probation.

2. The ex-officio position cannot be represented by current senators, executives or other ex-officio representatives.

3. If an ex-officio position representing a student organization goes unrepresented for four (4) consecutive senate meetings they will be notified of their absences and potential consequences by the Presiding Officer in writing; if the organization is absent for another four (4) consecutive senate meetings they will lose their ex-officio position excluding the ASUW President and Vice President.

ARTICLE VIII
Selections

Section 1. Selections of the Freshman Senate will be administered by the ASUW Freshman Senate Advisor, or designee within the first four (4) weeks of the fall semester. The Advisor shall make a prioritized list of applicants not selected, for use in the case of a vacancy at a later date in the year.

Section 2. Specific filing and election dates, application procedures, interview procedures, selection committee composition, result announcements, new Freshman Senate orientation, and any other matters of elections will be circulated by the ASUW Advisor, or designee, no later than June 1 the summer preceding the fall of the formal selection process.

Section 3. All information specified in Section 2 will be circulated in an annual “Freshman Senate Selection Code” and will also be available on the ASUW website.

Section 4. Between official selections, vacancies will be filled through the following procedures.

A. Upon the resignation, permanent absence or incapacity of any Senator, the senatorial candidate who received the next highest number of votes in the preceding election shall fill the vacancy.

B. The Procedures Committee will notify the person with the next highest number of votes within two (2) business days of the Senator’s resignation. The person notified will have two (2) business days to accept or refuse the Senate position. Upon acceptance, the person will be sworn in at the next regular Freshman Senate meeting. In the event of refusal, the same procedure will be followed with the next available candidate.

C. Following the resignation of a Senator, where no candidate exists, an application procedure set by the Procedures Committee in conjunction with the ASUW Advisor or designee, with the consent of the Freshman Senate, will begin immediately.

D. Applications will be accepted for ten (10) business days following the approval of the application, and the deadline date will be advertised. The deadline will be extended, or late applications accepted, only if no applications are filed within the allotted time.

E. Interview Procedure:
   i. Each candidate who applies and is eligible shall be granted a personal interview with the Procedures Committee.
ii. Interview time and questions shall be consistent for each candidate.
iii. Guidelines for interviewing will be developed by the Procedures Committee.
iv. Any interested ASUW representative or Freshman Senator may attend Procedures Committee interviews if he notifies the Committee in advance.

F. After all interviews are completed and the Procedures Committee has reached a decision, all candidates will be notified by the Procedures Committee Chairman within one (1) business day following the completion of all interviews.

G. Following the completion of interviews, the Procedures committee shall compile a ranking list of the applicants not selected. For any further vacancies the Committee shall refer to this list and recall the next ranking applicant.
