President ASW
Kelli L. Stepp

April 2, 2003

necessary information Built upon faculty input, the student shall assist you with scheduling a meeting and provide you with any as a Council prior to the next session of the ASW on April 8, 2003. Please feel free to contact

I apologize for the short notice, but would encourage you to consider this issue promptly.

allowed to vote on this issue. It would be the first time in the ASW history.

The issue before you is whether the ASW has the authority to place such an issue as a vote to tax themselves; then the fee will be requested by ASW for the following year, as general elections beginning the week of April 14th. The bill outlines clearly that if the students calls for that fee by placing the fee essentially as a referendum, in the ballot during the ASW raise student fees again without the official vote of the student body. ASW Senate Bill 111 2043 support a program of this size without increasing fees. The ASW is, however, unwilling to unfortunately, given the current income generated by the ASW fee, the ASW cannot Program with student fees.

Year 2005,

in full force. The survey also showed that students were willing to support the College Readiness Program developed and sponsored by USAS Today. The results of the

In the beginning portion of this semester, the ASW sponsored a pilot version of the

Dear Chief Justice Davis and Members of the Board:

RF: Senate Bill 111 2043, USAS Today College Readiness Program

To: Judicial Council, Associated Students of the University of Wyoming

(307) 766-5204
P.O. Box 3925, Laramie, Wyoming 82071-3925

April 2, 2003