Respectfully submitted,

We appreciate your full compliance with the decision of the Judicial Council.

such a decision.

however the guidelines set forth in the Elections Packet shall not be the primary guide for the ASWY Senate. We will take them into consideration when making a decision. As we see these sections of the Elections Packet as being the elected opinion of the ASWY Judicial Council By-Laws and Rules, as they are currently set in accordance to the ASWY Judicial Council for review. These compliances will be processed in the ASWY Judicial Council for review, to determine any and all elections compliances and violations shall be submitted to the ASWY Judicial Council for review.

Overset and boundary again.

Secretary’s duties and violation are nonexistent.

overset as the boundaries and violation exist.

In order to remain a constitutional separation of powers, the bearing of all.

has come to the conclusion that these sections are unconstitutional.

compliances and violations as well as the power to impose sanctions was granted to the ASWY Judicial Council by the ASWY Constitution. By designating these powers to the ASWY Judicial Council, we acknowledge the need for the document to be in existence at this time, we have decided that no action be taken to adapt said document for the upcoming election. However, when this document again comes under review of the Elections Committee, the issue of separation of powers needs to be looked at more closely and the Elections Committee shall not be bound by the guidelines set forth in the Elections Packet.

Dear ASWY Elections Committee:

April 28, 2003