

SENATE RESOLUTION #1394

Title: Evaluation Confidentiality 1

Codification Number:

Introduced: February 16, 1981

Thesis: Revision of UniReg 800

Sponsor: Jesse Yeatts

1. Whereas it has always been assumed by students that faculty evaluations have
2. been confidential, and whereas, UniReg 800 requires a statement read to each
3. class to that infers confidentiality, and whereas, this statement is and may
4. be construed as a means of intentionally misleading students, and whereas,
5. a system of faculty evaluations can only be effective if honest opinions are
6. presented by the students and that is not possible without an assurance that
7. these evaluations will not be used against them, and whereas this loose
8. wording has already been abused by faculty members, and whereas, this means
9. of faculty evaluation will be totally ineffective without the cooperation of
10. members of the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming through means
11. of a student boycott; be it resolved that the Student Senate of the Associated
12. Students of the University of Wyoming that UniReg 800 be revised to include
13. absolute guarantee of confidentiality of the evaluator in faculty evaluations
14. and this revision be adopted before students participate in evaluations for
15. Spring Semester 1981.
