

SENATE RESOLUTION #1460

Title: Appropriate placement of posters and/or other paraphernalia

Introduced: October 17, 1983

Thesis:

Sponsor: Grace Chan

1. Whereas the placement of posters and other paraphernalia in and/or on
2. areas not designated for such purposes (i.e., sidewalks, light poles, etc.)
3. causes unnecessary litter and unsightliness on the University of Wyoming
4. Campus; and whereas the aesthetic beauty of the University of Wyoming
5. Campus is of great importance to students, staff, faculty, administration
6. and alumni of the University; Therefore be it resolved by the Student Senate
7. of the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming that specific
8. guidelines be developed by the University Administration, in consultation
9. with the aforementioned concerns identifying the appropriate procedure to 10. be followed for the placement of any poster or other paraphernalia on the 11. University Campus and appropriate sanctions if the procedure (policy) is
12. disregarded.
