

SENATE RESOLUTION #1586(Rev.)

Title: Grace Period for Course Withdrawal

Introduced: December 1, 1987

Sponsors: Marty Kanarowski, Stacey Restivo, Jeff Colwell, Jaimie Bright, Jennifer Gras, Eagan Wilson

1. Whereas if the withdrawal period were shortened, students would not have
2. a good idea of their standing in the courses until after the withdrawal
3. period ended; whereas a personality conflict with the instructor may
4. occur after the withdrawal period has ended, which would offer the
5. student no recourse but to remain; whereas of the 345 University of
6. Wyoming students surveyed, a majority oppose any changes in the current
7. 10-week withdrawal period; be it resolved by the Student Senate of the
8. ASUW that it support and adopt as policy the position that the 10-week
9. withdrawal period not be changed.

Referred to: Committee of the Whole (12-8-87)

Date of Passage: December 8, 1987 Signed: _____

"Being enacted on _____, I do hereby sign my name hereto
ASUW Chairperson

and approve this Senate action." _____
ASUW President

(Vote: 29-1-0)

Amendments:

line 3--delete "personality," and "with the instructor"

line 4--delete "which would offer the"

line 5--delete "student no recourse but to remain"

VETO