1. Whereas there is a need for revenue generation at the University of
2. Wyoming in order to enhance the quality of education here at the
3. University; and whereas a higher quality education would increase the
4. value of degrees earned at the University; and whereas the majority of
5. students would support a tuition increase in order to attain this goal;
6. and whereas the UW administration will be presenting a recommendation for
7. a tuition increase to the University of Wyoming trustees; and whereas it
8. is also recognized by the Student Senate that the economic needs of UW
9. students must also be taken into serious consideration; be it resolved by 10. the Student Senate of the Associated Students of the University of 11. Wyoming that it support a tuition increase of 10% per semester for 12. residents and non-residents conditional upon these extra monies being 13. directed to quality faculty and staff recruitment and retention and to
14. faculty and staff salaries.
