Senate Resolution #1660

Title: Reallocation Teaching Criteria

Date: March 6, 1990

Sponsor: Academic Affairs

1. Whereas the University of Wyoming reallocation process will soon be underway; whereas teaching abilities will factor into this evaluation process; whereas student input is a valuable measure in this process; and

2. whereas student-teacher evaluations are the only fair measure of the student voice; be it resolved by the Student Senate of the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming that student-teacher evaluations be considered as the most important factor in measuring teaching performance.

3. Further be it resolved that the ASUW encourages a consistent, campus-wide system of teacher evaluations to be conducted not less than once a year.

Referred to: Committee of the Whole
