WHEREAS, it is essential that there be a strong link between the Students' Attorney and the Students' Attorney Advisory Board to ensure that the high caliber of legal advice provided to full fee-paying students continues; and WHEREAS, the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming provides a valuable service to the students of the University of Wyoming through the Students' Attorney's Office; and WHEREAS, monthly meetings between the Students' Attorney and the Students' Attorney Advisory Board are an important and vital means to ensure that competent legal advice is being provided; and
WHEREAS, the Students' Attorney Advisory Board has met with the Students' Attorney only on a sporadic basis in the past; THEREFORE, be it enacted by the Student Senate of the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming that the Students' Attorney Advisory Board shall meet with the Students' Attorney once a month, excluding summer, to discuss issues and cases. It shall be at the discretion of the Students' Attorney to determine what cases are discussed and in what manner, in order to protect confidentiality.
