Sec. 9 ASUW Senator: The ASUW Senator shall assume the same duties as a Student-at-Large with the added responsibility of serving as the ASUW Student Activities Council Chair in the event that the LSP is absent. The ASUW Senator can hold additional leadership positions on the council with the approval of the LSP. The ASUW Senator is required to attend all council business meetings and will fulfill the role of the ASUW Student Activities Council Ex-Officio at ASUW Senate Meetings.

Article IV
Selection of Leadership Team

Sec. 1 Lead Student Programmer: Applications for the position of LSP shall be available two weeks prior last day before Spring Break and will be due on the last day before Spring Break. Each applicant must meet the necessary requirements for ASUW Student Activities Council eligibility with the added requirement of at least one year of service on the council.

- A. LSP Selection Process:
- a. Each qualified applicant shall be allowed to address the council. Each council member can make a recommendation as to whether the candidate is Preferred, Acceptable or Unacceptable. These recommendations will be collected by the council advisor who will be responsible for arranging interviews for each candidate.
 - b. Each qualified applicant will be interviewed by the council advisor, the Assistant Director of the Wyoming Union and the current ASUW Vice-President. These individuals will select the new LSP based on the following criteria:
 - i. Recommendations from the council
 - ii. Leadership ability
 - iii. Programming experience and knowledge
 - iv. Organizational skills
 - v. Ideas and plans for the future of the council
 - c. The LSP elect is subject to approval by the ASUW Senate.

Sec. 2 Directors: Nominations for the positions of Director of Information, Director of Marketing and Director of Finance shall be taken from the current membership of the council. Nominations are due one week after the new LSP has been approved. Each council member can nominate one individual for each of the three director positions. They can nominate the same person for each position or nominate a different student for each position and council members can nominate themselves. Each nominated individual shall be allowed to address the council. An election shall be held in which each member of the Student Activities Council is allowed one vote for each position. A candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast by the council in order to be elected. The process of selecting directors will proceed immediately following the appointment of the new LSP. To avoid a conflict in case the outgoing LSP is nominated for a director position, the new LSP is responsible for coordinating this process with the assistance of the council advisor. In the event of that a majority is not received a new election will take place between the two candidates that received the most votes.

Sec. 3 Committee Chairs: Selection of Concerts and Music Chair, Comedy and Variety Chair, Lectures and Speakers Chair, Community and Family Programs Chair and Films Chair will be taken from the current membership of the council. Council members who wish to be elected to one of these positions can apply by giving their name to the new LSP within one week of the selection of that individual. Each candidate shall be allowed to address the council. An election shall be held in which each member of the ASUW Student Activities Council is allowed one vote for each position. The candidate who receives the most votes will be elected. The process of selecting Committee Chairs will proceed immediately following the appointment of the new LSP. The new LSP is responsible for coordinating this process, with the assistance of the council advisor, to avoid a conflict in case the outgoing LSP applies for a chair position.

Sec. 4 Lack of Applicants: If there is a lack of sufficient applicants or nominees to fill any position the new LSP and the advisor will determine how to proceed. Decisions made by the LSP and advisor in regard to leadership positions must be approved by a majority vote of the council.

Sec. 5 ASUW Senator: One ASUW Senator will be appointed to the council by the ASUW Vice-President.

Article V Duties of Membership

Sec. 1 Students-at-Large: Any ASUW Student Activities Council member that does not have a position on the Leadership Team is considered a Student-at-Large. SAL's may be chosen by the council for the following duties:

- A. Recognition: From time to time it may be appropriate to recognize or reward members of the council, the campus community or other individuals or groups for service to the council. The Recognition Manager will oversee these activities and report to the council when appropriate.

- B. Historian: The Council Historian will maintain an accurate account of council programs and activities. These duties can include but are not limited to: maintaining a list of council programs, documenting any co-sponsorship activities, maintaining a record of membership, recording any significant difficulties or challenges facing the council and documenting desired changes to the ASUW Student Activities Council by-laws. The historian will report to the council when appropriate.

- C. Recruitment and Retention: The duties for Recruitment and Retention can be allocated to any number of members depending on need. These students will work to recruit new ASUW Student Activities Council members and work to retain the ones that have made an initial commitment to the council. A report to the council will be made when appropriate.
- D. Committee Assistants: All SAL's who have not been appointed or elected to specific duties will serve as committee assistants. Committee Assistants will help with all aspects of programming within the assigned committee. SAL's can serve on more than one committee and may be asked to assume numerous responsibilities when needed.
