Date: September 5, 2006

Authors: Vice President Freeburn

Sponsors: Senators Primus and Wilson

1. WHEREAS, the Shuttle to Denver International Airport (DIA) was
2. established as an Associated Students of the University of Wyoming (ASUW)
3. Program and Service in 2004; and
4. WHEREAS, the DIA Shuttle program is recognized as a beneficial service to 5. students across campus; and
6. WHEREAS, some students would struggle to find a method by which to
7. travel to DIA without the offered Shuttle Service; and
8. WHEREAS, University of Wyoming departments and organizations including
9. the Office of Vice President for Student Affairs, the Associated Parents of the 10. University of Wyoming, the International Students and Scholars Office, the
11. Dean of Students Office, and the Residence Halls Association have continued
12. to monetarily support the Shuttle program in recognition of the service's
13. benefit to students; and
14. WHEREAS, seats on the Shuttle rarely go without being filled; and
15. WHEREAS, the Shamrock Shuttle Service (previously the Armadillo
16. Express) has again offered their assistance and company resources to run the 17. DIA Shuttle for the 2006-2007 academic year; and
18. WHEREAS, the FY 07 Budget allocates $2,800 in fees and $5,000 in revenue

19. for the DIA Shuttle under the auspices of the Executive Budget; and
20. WHEREAS, Senate Bill #2148 states that "all monies allocated for the DIA
21. Shuttle may be spent only with the approval of the Senate."
22. THEREFORE, be it enacted by the Associated Students of the University of
23. Wyoming (ASUW) that the DIA Shuttle program operate as closely as
24. possible to the 2005-2006 model with the Shamrock Shuttle Service on dates
25. and times established by the ASUW Executive Staff; and
26. THEREFORE, be it further enacted that the ASUW Executive Staff shall 27. have full use of and control of the FY 07 budget line allocated for the
28. operation of the DIA Shuttle for the 2006-2007 academic year.
