Executive Reports
President Wilkins distributed model release and committee preference forms and asked that they be completed and turned in at the end of the meeting. He announced that he has his first meeting with the board tomorrow. He is in the midst of transition from his former role into the position of president and will be available via email at ________________ should anyone have any questions.

Vice President Houghton will be in and out of the office so please feel free to reach out via email as well at asuwvp@uwyo.edu with any questions. He then explained that there are several Senators who have still not turned in their expense reports and asked to have these in by the end of the week. He requested that the Senate start using more gender inclusive language; for example, saying “you all” rather than “you guys”. He reminded them to address the chair with “Mr. Chair”.

Advisor Lozano introduced professional staff with ASUW. He then yielded his time to VP Blackburn. VP Blackburn congratulated the 107th administration. He also encouraged the Senate to focus on the big issues and be responsible leaders and representatives of their student body. He emphasized that when he does attend meetings, he is there to understand the student perspective.

Ex Officio Communications
International Students Association reported that they have an event coming up this Friday, the International Talent Show.

Sustainability Coalition reported that Earth week is this week. They invited the Senators to join them for multiple events throughout campus including a waste buffet at Washakie tomorrow.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Advisor Lozano announced that May 10th is Union Fest. Traditionally, ASUW has done walking tacos for this event. He told the Senate to expect communication for help with this as well as stage set ups. This year, there will be help from the UW Wrestling team.

President Wilkins requested that the Senators make three stacks of the forms that were distributed earlier to be handed back in. He announced that committees will be set up this summer and will be publicized after they are done. The rest of the meetings this semester have been cancelled to give some time to Senators to finish out their semester, and they will pick back up in September.

Senator Lyle announced that this Saturday is an Earth day BBQ. Anyone interested should attend.

Senator Rubano announced that the UW Debate team is prepping for a new season. If anyone wants information about joining, they should reach out to Senator Rubano.

Senator Lane announced that the school of Fine Art’s final show, The Robber Bridegroom, will begin next week. This Friday and Saturday are undergraduate research days.
President Wilkins requested that the Senators bring their name plates and other items back to the front, and they will be checked back out in the fall.

After processing, the meeting adjourned at 8:44 pm. The next regular meeting will be September 10th, 2019 at 7:00 pm in the Senate Chambers Union Room 221.
