TITLE: Course Syllabus Requirement for Student Basic Needs Security

DATE INTRODUCED: October 29, 2019

AUTHOR: Director Savage

SPONSORS: Senators Brooks, Mulhall, O'Connor, and Woodward

1. WHEREAS, the purpose of the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming (ASUW)
2. Student Government is to serve our fellow students in the best manner possible; and,
3. WHEREAS, the University of Wyoming (UW) currently requires that critical resources
4. and information be reported in course syllabi; and,
5. WHEREAS, information regarding resources for food and housing security is not
6. frequently distributed to students; and,
7. WHEREAS, all students should be informed of resources on campus that ensure they
8. meet their basic needs; and,
9. WHEREAS, course syllabi provide an efficient and effective outlet for that information to be
10. transmitted to students on a regular basis; and,
11. WHEREAS, an additional requirement to the UW Regulation 2-117 Course Syllabus
12. Requirements would ensure that all students have been made aware of critical resources
13. that would help them meet their basic needs.
14. THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming
15. (ASUW) Student Government that the Faculty Senate, Dean of Students, Vice President for
16. Student Affairs, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Board of Trustees, and the Office of
17. General Counsel review and consider the recommended change to University of Wyoming
18. (UW) Regulation 2-117 Course Syllabus Requirements as outlined in Addendum A; and,
19. THEREFORE, be it further resolved that all of the parties listed previously receive a copy of

20. this resolution; and,
21. THEREFORE, be it further resolved that this change be recommended to the UW Board
22. of Trustees for approval by the 107th Administration of the ASUW Student Government; and,
23. THEREFORE, be it further resolved that the ASUW Student Government strongly
24. supports the consideration, review, and implementation of the recommended revision
25. made in Addendum A by the Board of Trustees by the beginning of the 2020-2021 Academic
26. Year.

Addendum A

PURPOSE

To establish guidelines for the development and distribution of course syllabi.

DEFINITIONS

Syllabus: A schedule of class topics and activities that also includes policies related to the administration of the course.

REQUIREMENTS

- A. The instructor of a course shall provide a copy of the course syllabus to students at the beginning of the semester, which shall be distributed hard copy or via the University's learning management system. The instructor will post an outline syllabus publicly as early as is practicable, preferably not later than two (2) weeks prior to the commencement of the term.
- B. The contents of a syllabus must include, at a minimum, the following information:
  - 1. The instructor's contact information.
  - 2. For site-based in-person courses, the instructor's office hours or open-door availability; for online courses, the instructor's response time and availability for virtual office hours. Faculty are expected to have a minimum of three (3) hours spread over two (2) days of the week of out-of class availability to students each week.
  - 3. The course prefix, number, title, credit hours, and semester.
  - 4. Course prerequisites, co-requisites or statement on enrollment restrictions.
  - 5. A description of the course, including its purpose, content, and goals.
  - 6. Meeting times and/or schedule of the course.
  - 7. The general requirements and expectations for the course.
  - 8. Student learning outcomes for the course. Student learning outcomes in different sections of the same course should not differ significantly. The learning outcomes related to University Studies Program objectives should be included, if applicable.
  - 9. Required texts, readings, and special tools or materials.
  - 10. Required examinations, assignments, activities, and projects.
  - 11. Required participation outside of class meetings, including field trips, service learning, and other activities or expectations, including time commitments.
  - 12. Final examination or final project date, as set by the Office of the Registrar.
  - 13. Grading scale and grading policies, including the methods of evaluation, how those methods factor into the final grade, the scale used to determine final grades, and how late assignments will be handled.
  - 14. Attendance and absence policies. For in-person courses, state the class absence policies, as well as University policies on excused absences. For online courses, state the class participation policies, what constitutes participation and how that will be evaluated.
  - 15. Classroom behavior policy, including a statement of policies to foster a positive learning environment, including use of cell phones, mobile devices, etc.
  - 16. Classroom statement on diversity. The University of Wyoming values an educational environment that is diverse, equitable, and inclusive. The diversity that students and faculty bring to class, including age, country of origin, culture, disability, economic class, ethnicity, gender identity, immigration status, linguistic, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, veteran status, worldview, and other social and cultural diversity is valued, respected, and considered a resource for learning.

17. A statement referring to reasonable accommodations provided by University Disability Support Services.
18. Academic dishonesty policies, with a statement or a reference to UW Regulation 2-114 (Procedures and Authorized University Actions in Cases of Student Academic Dishonesty).
19. A statement referring to duty to report status of instructional personnel under Title IX.
20. A statement informing students of resources that can meet their basic food and housing needs. Students should contact the Dean of Students office if they have difficulty affording food on a regular basis and/or lack a safe place to live, especially if it will affect their class performance.
21. A statement indicating that the information contained in the course syllabus, other than the grade and absence policies, may be subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor. Substantive changes made to the syllabus by the instructor during the semester shall be communicated in the learning management system, other electronic means, or in class to the students with reasonable notice.

- C. Individual colleges and departments may develop additional guidelines for course syllabi and office hour expectations that exceed the minima outlined in this Regulation.
- D. An instructor's failure to comply with this Regulation does not relieve a student from the responsibility to meet the academic requirements of the course as determined by the instructor.

On-Campus:

Any student who has difficulty affording groceries, accessing sufficient nutritious food, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, and believes this may affect their performance in this course, is urged to contact the Dean of Students office for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so. This will enable them to direct you to resources available on campus.

Distance Courses:

Any student who has difficulty affording groceries, accessing sufficient nutritious food, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, and believes this may affect their performance in this course, is urged to contact the Dean of Students office for support. There might also be resources in your community which you can search for by zip code here: <http://www.feedingamerica.org/>.

Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so. This will enable them to provide any resources that they may possess.
