SENATE RESOLUTION #2603

TITLE: ASUW Support of Fraternity/Sorority Life’s Redevelopment of Greek Week

DATE INTRODUCED: March 6, 2018

AUTHOR: Chief of Legislative Affairs Jones

SPONSORS: Senator Blazovich, Fried, Means, Mueller, and Stromberg; College Panhellenic Council; Interfraternity Council

1. WHEREAS, it is the duty of the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming (ASUW)
   Student Government to represent our fellow students accurately; and,

3. WHEREAS, the Interfraternity Council (IFC) and College Panhellenic Council (CPH) are both strategic partners of ASUW that are an integral part of campus culture at the University of Wyoming; and,

6. WHEREAS, recognized chapters through the Fraternity/Sorority Life (FSL) community garnish value-based leaders that have helped develop ASUW and the University of Wyoming communities; and,

9. WHEREAS, the general direction of the FSL community is moving toward a more unified community between recognized chapters to promote one another through growth and development, building connections, leading with integrity, and giving back to the community; and,

13. WHEREAS, IFC has recently redeveloped their focus on the betterment of member fraternities through education, advocacy, and collaboration between one another; and,

15. WHEREAS, CPH and their affiliated chapters are focused on having university involvement, leadership development, and service initiatives within their body through community service activities, educational events, and philanthropy to promote positive growth within the FSL
18. community; and,

19. WHEREAS, in the past, Greek Week would develop relationships between chapters through competitive events and cooperation between FSL Chapters; and,

20. WHEREAS, these developments of connection between chapters felt restricted between individual chapters and competitive teams, not allowing as many opportunities for networking and developing relationships beyond pre-established groups; and,

21. WHEREAS, the scheduled events for this year’s Greek Week are more focused on the values of IFC, CPH, and the FSL community by promoting events involving service leadership, academics, and educational programing rather than just athletic competitions; and,

22. WHEREAS, the revised focus and intent of Greek Week 2018 is only one of many steps the FSL community is planning to further develop their community to become more interdependent and cooperative leading to more meaningful connections within the FSL community and further develop leadership opportunities for the FSL community, ASUW, and the University of Wyoming;

23. THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming (ASUW) Student Government support the initiative and new direction of the Fraternity and Sorority Life Community; and,

24. THEREFORE, be it further resolved that the ASUW Student Government also supports the initiative and events of the 2018 Greek Week as outlined within Addendum A.

Referred to: Program and Institutional Development

Teams will compete in a game similar to Family Feud.

Leadership Programming Event – Tuesday, March 27, 2018 7:00PM Union Ballroom
Leadership is an essential component of the Fraternity and Sorority experience. Leadership is not always about the positions held, but rather the way in which individuals, whether with designated positions or not, respond to the adversity of programs and events, build relationships, empower others, and communicate. We will
