

Rural Living Workshop

“Providing landowners with the knowledge and tools to develop a management plan for their property”

- ◇ Where: High Plains Research Center and Botanic Gardens (Cheyenne)
- ◇ When: Every Tuesday starting June 23 until July 21 - 6-8 PM
- ◇ How Much: $50 individual, $75 couple

Class size is limited to 25!

Agenda

June 23: Landscaping and Windbreaks- Tom Heald-Botanical Gardens
Learn how to use windbreaks and landscaping on your property.

June 30: Living in Wyoming- Dallas Mount-High Plains Research Center
A look at our soils, climate and ecology.

July 7: Prairie Plants- Rex Lockman-High Plains Research Center
Learn how to identify the grasses, shrubs, weeds and other vegetation life on your piece of the prairie.

July 14: Ecosystem Management- Dallas Mount-High Plains Center
Learn how to drive the ecological system by your management to fit your goals.

July 21: Setting Your Property Goals- Dallas Mount-High Plains Center
Learn how your actions affect your land and how you can determine what your land will look like.

July 28: Property Management Plans- Dallas Mount-Botanic Gardens
Share your completed property management plan and get feedback from instructors and class participants.

For more information, please contact Dallas Mount (307) 322-3667 or Jessica Leetch (307) 241-0999

To Register, please contact the Laramie County Conservation District (307) 772-2600

UNIVERSITY
OF WYOMING
Cooperative Extension Service

BARNYARDS
& BACKYARDS
RURAL LIVING IN WYOMING