

HIGH TUNNEL

“HANDS ON” WORKSHOP

Extending the garden season
in Star Valley, Wyoming

Date: Wednesday Afternoon May 19th & Thursday May 20th.

Time: 3-6 PM May 19th & 8-5 (or until completed) the 20th.

Location: Lincoln Self Reliance, Inc.

1039 South Washington
Afton, WY 83110

Highlights

Learn how to construct a High Tunnel.

- In a little over one day.
- Using locally available materials.
- Complete material lists provided.

Space is limited to 25 people.
Must register prior to May 14th.

Registration is Free

Lunch will be provided by local agricultural growers.

To Register Contact:

Western Wyoming RC&D
307.886.9412

High Tunnels or Hoop Houses can be incorporated into your gardening and cropping practices as a means to extend the growing season and increase specialty crop production—even in Wyoming. This workshop will provide you with the knowledge to build a high tunnel utilizing locally available materials, on your own property.

BUY FRESH. BUY LOCAL.

An Equal Opportunity Provider and Employer

University of Wyoming

Cooperative Extension Service
Jeff M. Edwards
4516 US Highway 26/85
Torrington, WY 82240

Phone: 307-532-2436
E-mail: jedward4@uwoyo.edu

