

Rural Living “Hands On” Workshop SATURDAY, JULY 24TH, 2010

Horticulturalist and landscape designer: Lauren Springer Ogden

The Workshop will feature the following presentations:

8:15: What’s in your well water? Hank Uhden from the Wyoming Dept. of Ag will fill us in on the results of his groundwater sampling around the Big Horn Basin. Learn about the most common spraying mistakes and how to avoid them. Hank will provide important information on keeping our groundwater safe.

9:00: Waterwise Gardening with world renowned horticulturalist and landscape designer, Lauren Springer Ogden. Lauren wrote the book on gardening in challenging climates! We invite you to listen to her two hour photo-packed presentation about waterwise gardening and plants adapted to this arid climate. Come learn from the expert and expect to be inspired!

11:15: Weed Identification with Ruth Richards, Supervisor of Big Horn Co. Weed and Pest District. Learn hands-on weed identification while they are in full bloom! Also learn about control methods and programs available through the weed and pest
