

2013 Living on a Few Acres
 Sat. Feb. 23, 2013
 Holiday Inn, Cody, Wyoming

Time	Room A	Room B	Room C
9-9:50 am	Pruning Trees	World class Hay	Irrigation districts in PC
10-10:50 am	Permaculture	How to build a road	Native plants for drought
11-11:50 am	Pasture Management	Menus from the Garden	Growing Grapes
Noon-1:15	LUNCH - Loren Smith, State Engineer's Office
1:30 -2:20 pm	Pasture Management	Trees for Park County	Growing Grapes
2:30 - 3:20 pm	Native plants for drought	Native bees	World Class Hay

Speakers:

Pruning Trees - Bob Prchal, Park Co Master Gardeners

Permaculture - Bobbie Holder, UW Extension Horticulturist

Growing Grapes in Wyoming - Sadanand Dhekney, Asst. Prof., Sheridan Research & Extension Center

Pasture management for drought - Barton Stam, UW Extension educator

How to grow world class hay - Gerry Danko, retired farmer

Native plants for drought - Roger Hybner, Bridger Plant Materials Center, MT

How to build a road - Greg Meinecke, Park County Engineer

Native bees - Michael Dillon, UW graduate student in entomology

Surface Water in Northwest Wyoming - Loren Smith, Superintendent, Water Div. III, State Engineer's Office

Irrigation Districts in Park County - Bryant Starting, Shoshone Irrigation District

Menus from the garden - Phyllis Lewis, UW Extension educator

Trees for Park County - Chuck Hewlitt, Director, Parks Department, City of Powell