

Exploring Energy Efficiency & Alternatives (E3A)

At this 3 part series, learn the benefits and challenges of using alternative energy options

University of WY 4H/Extension Building located at 255 W. Deloney St. in Jackson, WY

General Energy Management for Home, Farm, & Ranch

Wednesday, May 22nd 2013 from 10am – 12pm

Solar Hot Water and Electricity for Home, Farm & Ranch

Thursday, May 30th 2013 from 1 – 3pm

Biodiesel, Micro-hydropower, and Small Wind Energy for Home, Farm, & Ranch

Tuesday, June 4th 2013 from 3 – 5pm

Presentations are planned to be held outside at a learning trailer (in case of bad weather they will be held inside in the lower classroom).

Please RSVP to Rachel Daluge at 733-2110 or rachel@tetonconservation.org

