1ST ANNUAL SMALL FLOCK & FIBER SYMPOSIUM
SEPT. 23-24: UW ARLEC 2011 FAIRGROUNDS RD CASPER, WY

COME LEARN FLOCK AND FIBER MANAGEMENT

SEPT. 23, 2015 (10a—5p)
- Handling Wool To Enhance Quality (Ron Cole—ASI)
- Using Guardian Animals With Flocks (Cat Urbikit)
- From Fleece to Product (Larry Prager, Ctr of Nation Wool)
- Financing a Flock or Fiber Enterprise (R Scott Stuart, NLPA)
- Dying Wool Yarn (Valerie Spano, Mountain Meadow Wool Mill)
- Predator Prevention w/ Small Flocks (Kent Drake—WDA)

SEPT. 24, 2015 (8a—1p)
- Mentors For Flocks (WWGA—Amy Wallop Hendrickson)
- Shearing Demonstration TBA
- Basic Flock Feeding (Chance Marshall, UW Extension)
- Niche Fiber Opportunities (Valerie Spanos, Mountain Meadow Wool)
- Poisonous Plants (Scott Cotton, UW Extension)
- Marketing Your Product Online (Jenny Nixon, UNL E-COMMERCE Educator)

Pre-register at http://www.eventbrite.com/e/1st-annual-wyoming-small-flock-fiber-symposium-tickets-18317817084 no later than 2pm on September 18, 2015. Fee is $25 (includes registration, 2 lunches and materials). For more information contact Scott Cotton at (307) 235-9400 or Scotton1@uwyo.edu

Issued in furtherance of cooperative extension work, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Glen Whipple, Director, UW Extension, University of Wyoming, Laramie, Wyoming 82071.

The University of Wyoming is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution.