

Property Plan Worksheet

Owner: _____
 Area addressed: _____
 Date prepared: _____

Management Objectives Section
Global Vision/Directive (Multiple statements allowed/encouraged. Example statements: attractive to passersby; ... keep my horses fat and happy; room to train my birddog, place for my family to play soccer; store my equipment; beautiful!; a wildlife haven.)	We believe that this property should be . . .
Assessment of the Property (Multiple statements should be linked with Global statements Example statements: a weed patch; a junkpile, needs some improvements, is starving my horses; has too much bare ground, is blowing away, is a hazard in wildfire.)	Currently, the situation which is undesirable is...
Desire for the Property (Example statements: get rid of weeds, support three horses, protect the stream, be pretty, alter snowdrift location; decrease bare ground; increase forage production/quality; see wild flowers)	We have agreed that we want to . . .
Management Strategy Section
Strategies identified to accomplish desired state (Example statements: building horse barn and corral; weed control work; land shaping and reseeded, fencing, managed grazing, tree windbreak, new driveway.)	Some strategies that we can employ to accomplish the things we desire are . . .
Predicted outcome and how the outcome helps achieve objective(s) (Example statements: decrease erosion, increase productivity and help my horses get fat. Encourage wildflowers which attract butterflies.)	These strategies will . . .
The milestone(s) are (What indicates achievement? Example statements: when my horses are fat; the water is clear, the weeds are gone, my neighbors are envious, etc.)	I'll know I'm successful when . . .
Responsiveness (the timeframe you expect)	We would anticipate achieving objectives by results by . . .