

Orphulella pelidna

Orphulella pelidna is known to occur in limited numbers throughout Wyoming in its preferred habitat among grasses in moist areas along prairie rivers and streams. Adults can be found in July and August. Because of limited habitat this grasshopper has no economic importance in Wyoming. Ref: Pfadt 19, Otte 198, and Capinera and Sechrist 1982.