

Pertech Industries; Riverton, WY has a full-time software engineering position to fill.

The software engineer will focus on the development of applications and drivers to interface and control devices designed and manufactured by Pertech. The software will be developed for mobile and desktop environments. They will train applicants as needed and no travel is required.

Responsibilities may include:

- Develop utilities and device demonstration software
- Write Software Applications
- Write Device Drivers
- Work with customers doing technical support of drivers
- Work with the project teams to define driver requirements and software strategy
- Coordinate certification of applications and drivers
- Software will be developed for Windows, iOS, Linux and Android

Requirements:

- Minimum BS in Computer Science, Computer Engineering or Electrical Engineering
- Fluency in C, C++, Java
- Software development experience for Windows, linux, OSx and Android
- Experience in building client/server GUI mobile applications for different screen sizes (phone and tablet)
- Experience with multi-threaded programming
- Ability to learn and implement new technology quickly

Preferred:

- Experience with the Microsoft SDK's and DDK's
- Software development experience for iOS, Linux and Android
- Experience writing host software to communicate with USB and Ethernet peripherals
- Experience with Java
- Experience with RESTful web services, PHP, and SQL
- Experience with Web 2.0 technologies (e.g. HTML5, Ajax, GWT)
- Experience with Near Field Communication and Bluetooth

If interested in applying, email contact@pertechindustries.com and in the Subject Line put Software Engineer