

Company: Trihydro Corporation

Position: Internship

Location: Laramie, WY

Job Description:

Duties will include surface water/sediment/soil sampling, wildlife mitigation, and construction oversight support. Other duties include operations and maintenance activities which support remediation activities in a petroleum refinery setting. This position will require field work and travel to the project site as well as some weekend work

Minimum Qualification:

- Preferred applicants will be currently attending college studying Engineering and will be a junior or senior standing.
- Applicants must be age 21 or older and have a clean driving record.

How to Apply:

Apply on Company website <https://www.trihydro.com/about-us/careers> and navigate to "View our Positions" and search "intern"

Trihydro is an equal opportunity employer.