

Your future is up to you -- prepare yourself.

The spring semester is alive and well, and with it come new career preparation and employment opportunities. Listed below are upcoming events, activities and tools for you to use as you prepare for your future outside college.

CEAS Career Services: One-on-One Resume Critiques and Career Preparation

Ann Jones, the Associate Director for Career Services here at CEAS, is available for information and guidance on internships, resume, CV and cover letter critiques as well as interview preparation and other employment related services. Go to <https://www.timetrade.com/book/YN2QC> to schedule an appointment with Mrs. Jones.

CEAS would also like to welcome Manish Bengani as a student ambassador. Mr. Bengani is available for resume, CV and cover letter critiques; job fair and interview preparation; and can help you navigate CEAS new career database system, known as Handshake. Don't hesitate to schedule an appointment with him at <https://www.timetrade.com/book/SSR5J>.

Get ready: the STEM Job Fair is less than a month away!

ENGINEERING AND SCIENCE JOB FAIR: WEDNESDAY, FEB. 22 from 1:00 - 5:00 pm in the M.H. Rochelle Gateway Center.

The spring STEM Job fair is nearly upon us! Take advantage of the CEAS job prep to learn how to maximize your first impression with potential employers.

Drop-in Resume Critiques

Whether you're confident in your resume, or looking for some advice and tips, drop-in resume critiques are available to you! From February 15 - 21, come on by EN2082 and 2081 to get one-on-on guidance as to how to perfect your resume. Times and locations are listed below.

Feb 15 - 1:30-3:00pm; EN2082

Feb 17 - 1:30-5:00; EN2082 and EN2081

Feb 20 - 1:30-5:00; EN2082 and EN2081

Feb 21 - 8:00-12:00; EN2082

Feb 21 - 3:00-4:30; EN2081

Handshake: Helping you get a grip on career opportunities!

Been on Handshake yet? It's our new database for employers interested in UW students! Use your UW username and password to access Handshake, and discover a new, powerful tool to add to your job-hunting arsenal. If you find yourself needing help understanding how the system works, don't hesitate to contact Career Services. We're happy to show you how to optimize your Handshake experience.

Don't forget to try EPIC!

Struggling for free time but still wanting to get ahead in understanding the job game? Don't forget about EPIC, UW's online career preparation service that walks you through the employment process from beginning to end. EPIC can give you great advice on all components of career prep, from finding the right internships, to resume structure and interviewing. EPIC's log-in page can be found here.

Career Preparation Lunch and Learn Series: Thursdays, 12:10 - 1:00 pm in EN2062

CEAS' continuing "Lunch and Learn" Career Prep series is back for the semester. Every Thursday, from 12:10 - 1:00 pm, knowledgeable professional engineers will drop by for lunch to discuss various career prep topics such as transitioning from college to careers, working in professional environments and more. Come on by for lunch and learn about real-world issues in your career!

Etiquette Dinner: How to Represent Yourself Whilst Eating

Maybe you've mastered the interview...but what should you do if you're invited to dinner? Come to the Etiquette Dinner, March 1, from 6:00pm - 8:30 pm to learn how to act professionally in a dinner setting. The event includes a five course meal with a professional speaker. Reservations are necessary, with a $20 deposit required to get your ticket. This will be returned to you after you attend the dinner.

Tickets can be picked up with the $20 deposit beginning Monday, February 6 in the CEAS building, room EN2081. Only one ticket is allowed per person, and don't forget to bring your student ID.

| Internships | Jobs

Be on the lookout for CEAS announcements regarding job bulletins! Handshake updates regularly, and we're looking forward to keep you in the loop about opportunities available to you!