ES 3100 Class

The purpose of this Internship Preparation course is to prepare students for applying to internships in all applicable facets. Students will learn how to build their resume, write job specific cover letters, search for positions, and communicate with employers effectively. This course is a self-study with assignments given weekly. Students will be required to complete assignments and schedule individual appointments with an instructor in order to follow up on assignments.

• Preparing for employment after-college may be the most important steps you take while in-college

• Start early with the ES 3100-Internship Prepared course designed to increase your awareness and access to job resources, internships, and employers

• Two sections offered Fall 2020: Independent Study or Traditional Lecture Classroom
