

4-H Project Links

The 4-H Project Links provides a method to correlate projects with fair classes. These project links must be completed so that the Year in Project information prints on item tags. Judges use the Year in Project information during their judging.

Up to 40 fair classes can be linked to each 4-H project. In the case where there are more fair classes than available links, use the 40 most popular classes in the division. The Year in Project information needs to be manually written on the item tag for the remaining classes.

Leader projects end in a 0 and member projects end with numbers 1-9. If leader projects are displaying, please call the Communications and Technology office so this can be corrected.
