

Fellowship of Christian Graduate Students

Fall 2009 Events at UW

Welcome Reception

Wednesday September 2nd, 11:30-1:00 p.m., Wyoming Union Room 206
Lunch provided!! Feel free to come and go as your schedule requires.

Weekly Book Discussion Group – Mondays, 7:30 p.m., Wyoming Union Room 206 (usually)

Book discussions provide fodder for the mind and soul as grad students and faculty grapple with issues in faith & academia, and the larger calling of Christians to engage the world. This is also a main time for fellowship and encouragement. This year we are reading Why Believe?: Reason and Mystery As Pointers to God by C. Stephan Evans.

Monthly Dinner Series

Saturday, September 19th, 6:00 p.m.

Fellowship Dinner at the home of Prof. Cindy Price (Journalism), 1608 E Park Avenue. Main dish provided, bring a side!

Saturday, October 17th, 6:00 p.m.

Fellowship dinner at the Mad Carpenter Bed & Breakfast, corner of 8th and Clark St. Dinner provided.

Saturday, November 7th, 6:00 p.m.

Fellowship Dinner: At the home of business Prof. Mark Peterson, 1213 Garfield, Ph: 460-3931. Dinner provided!

Socials, Service, More?!

Do you have a passion or gift for helping people connect?
For service and outreach to the larger campus and community?
For helping people follow Jesus in their academic work?

Want to be added to our email list? Contact Lindsey George (lindseyageorge@gmail.com) or faculty advisor Prof. Chip Koblunicky (chipk@uwyo.edu) for more information.
